ACT I

SCENE 1: Port Huron Northern High School—a commonplace for education and social development; it stands high, pouring shadows over a rugged field of multi-colored vehicles and giant yellow busses. Inside: room after room filled with books, computers, and desks. Bathrooms bordered with coarse textured brick and tiled floors smelling of last nights cleaning. Hallways leading in all different directions like roads in a small out-of-the-way suburb.

Bells. Doors open. One student, then four, then ten... a flood of bodies and backpacks make their way quickly/slowly from one class to the next. Locker doors swing open then clang shut. Laughter and obscure conversation fill the halls as one friend finds another... and another... and another. It's a five-minute free for all. Then foots steps quicken then fade. Doors shut. Bells.

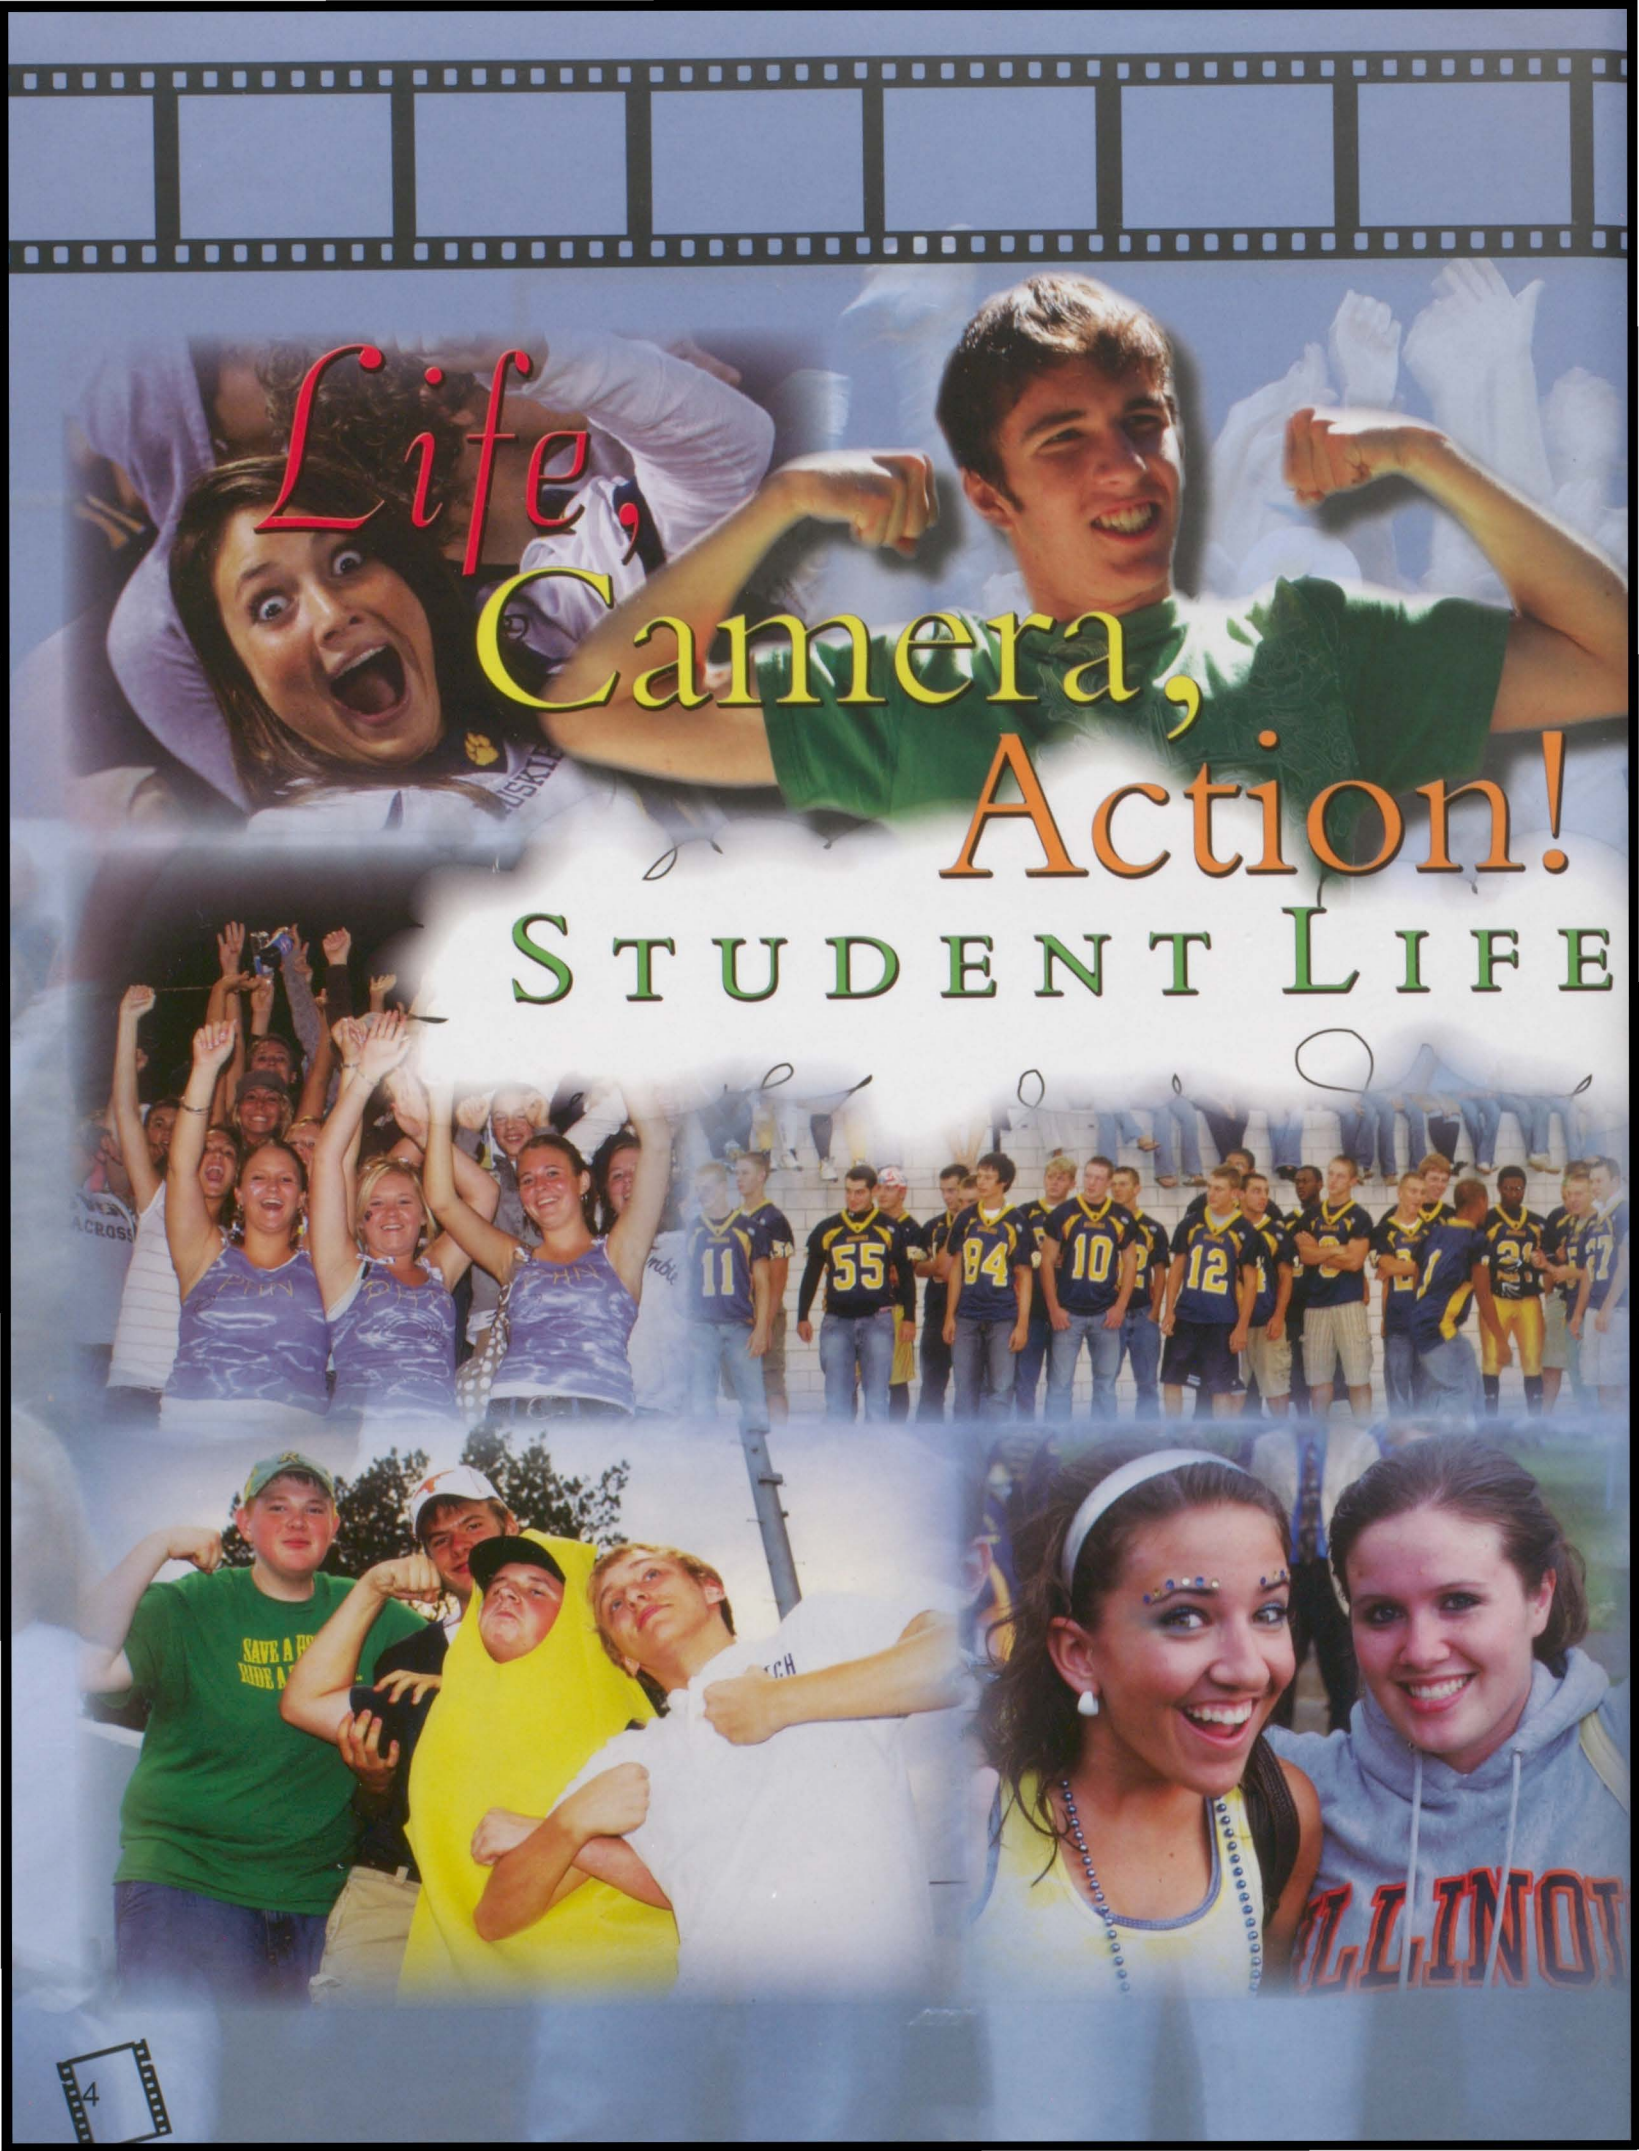

NARRATION: It's like watching a movie. Each character starts off the same way. The beginning of their freshman year they stumble through the front doors. New clothes, new shoes. Each carrying nearly empty backpacks strapped across each shoulder and a bulky binder held under one arm.

Lights. My teacher beckons the girl near the door to flip the switch as they roll the old, dust covered over-head projector towards the front of the class. I bend down and take quick sip of the red Gatorade I have hidden in my backpack, then quickly put it away and make an over-dramatized act of looking for my notebook. I'm so sneaky.

Camera. A yearbook student takes a group shot of our table as I sit with my buddies at lunch. Tongues out, eyes wide, each of us making the most ridiculous faces. Our hands go from peace signs, to bunny ears, to who knows what. In the time it takes for the shutter to close then open, we are the coolest kids in the world.

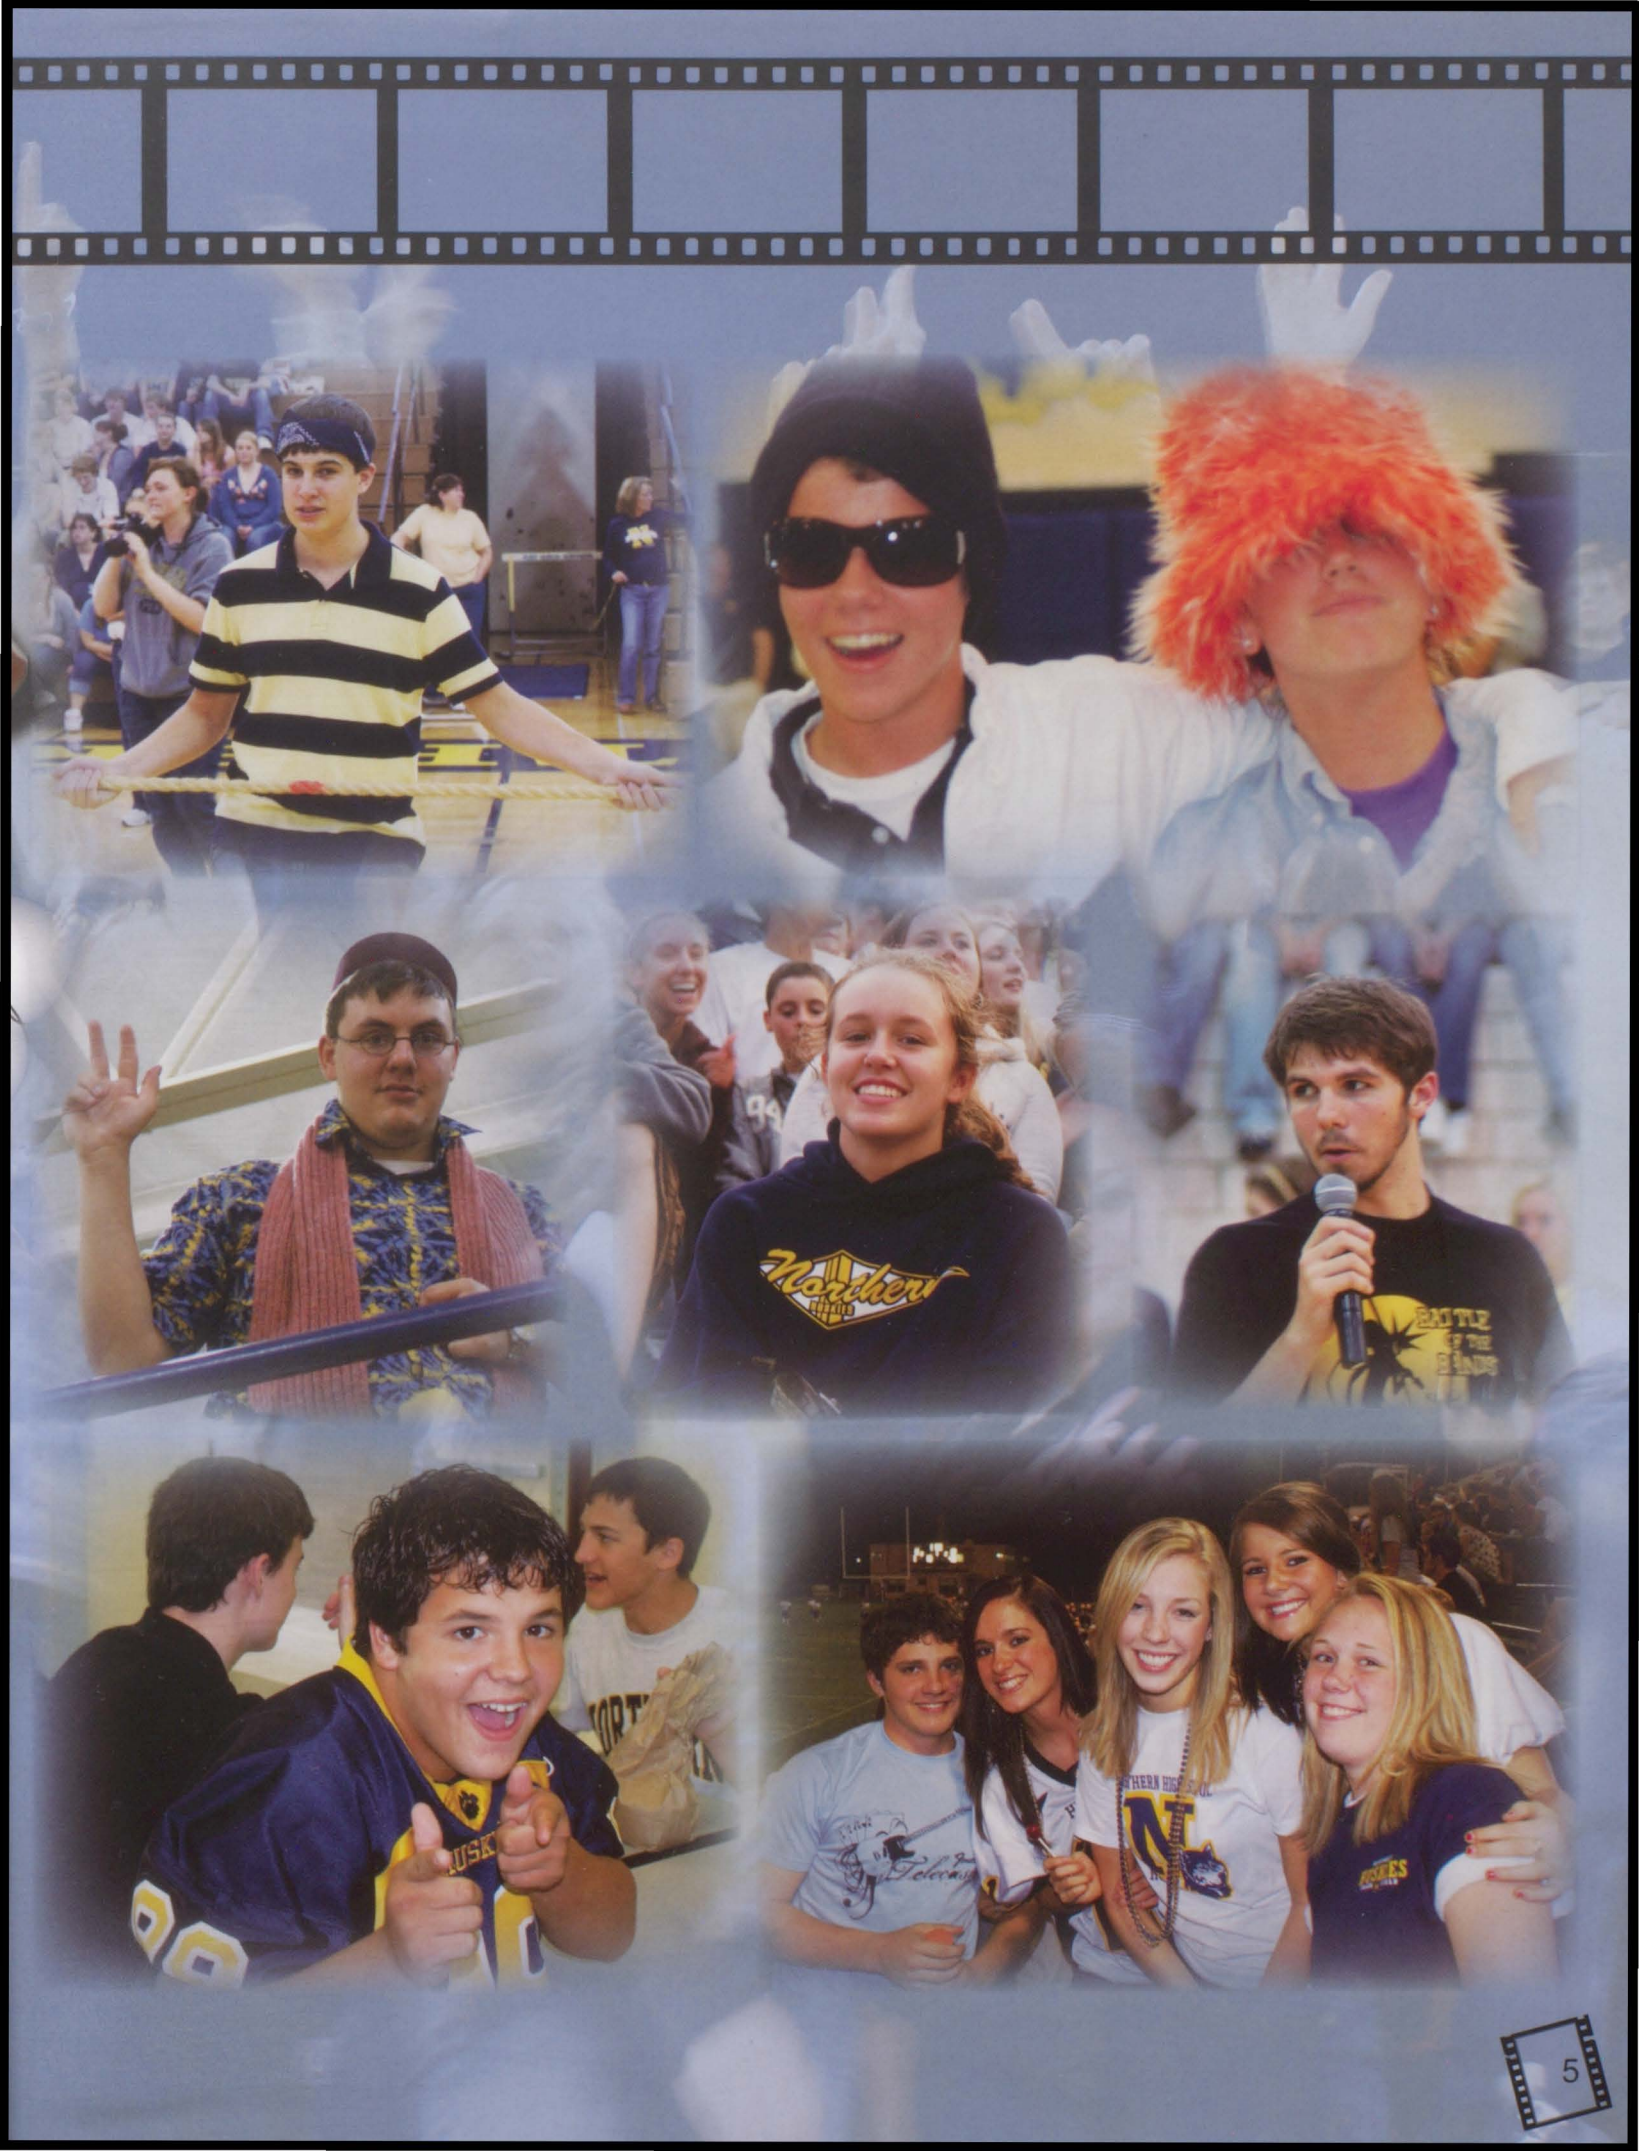

Action. Screams and cheers bellow from Northern's stands during our rival football game at Memorial Stadium. Slow motion. Students stand, fall silent, and watch as a receiver from our team runs for a touchdown. One leg reaches forward and crosses the line and all of life go's back to real time as everyone shouts with victory. It's a moment that entertains, even if you don't like football.

Everyone has their own movie. It begins everyday, every semester, every year. It begins the day you first came to Northern as a freshman. You walk in every morning around seven-o'clock, the ear buds in your ears providing your film with background music. The only thing missing is opening credits. Now you can either sit back in the audience waiting for that next great plot twist, or you can sit behind the camera and direct many scenes of your life. Either way, this is your feature presentation, so please... enjoy.

Life, Camera, Action!

A Walk To Remember

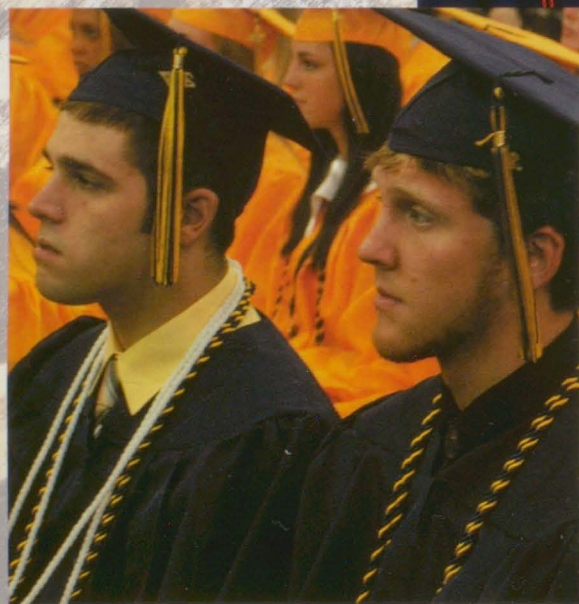

These ladies stand together as graduates for a final picture in their last official day of high school. Later will come commencements than following life.

Showing their smiles, Trey Cudlip 07', Courtney Smith 07', and Jessica Hughes 07' all get together and celebrate after graduation. Many graduation parties were held in the summer to say good-bys and good luck to fellow classmates and friend!

Metals and chords hang from the necks of William Harder 07' and Rahim Merchant 07' as they wait to be seated at the senior assembly. Marching practice usually takes about 3 days but it is worth the time once the day comes.

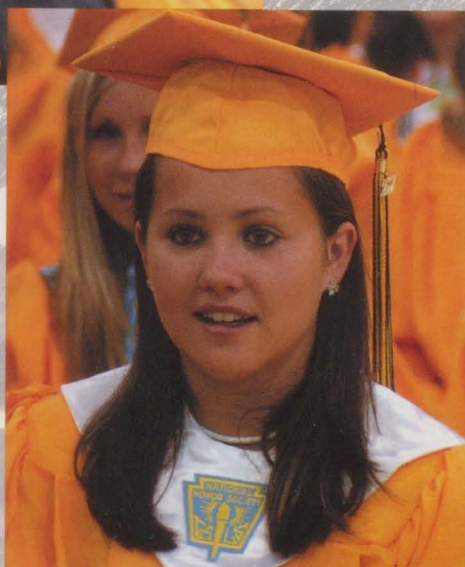

Listening intently to the speakers, Nathan Louks 07' and Jacob Louks 07' concentrate in their last hours of their high school years. The Senior assembly is a way for the seniors to remember their high school years and say their farewells to fellow friends and classmates before commencements.

Giving a quick thumbs up for the camera, Coleton Ulmer '07' shows his enthusiasm for graduation. This was the day all seniors had been waiting for, excited about graduating high school.

Taking the stand, Dan Gafney '07' gives a speech of farewell on behalf of the senior class. Sharing stories and memories of their high school years to help send them off in to the world a head of them.

Concentrating on the ceremony, Myl-eah Harwood concentrates as her senior year comes to a close. This was an emotional day for seniors, leaving fellow students to enter the real world.

Giving a quick glance to each other, Laura Bartle '07' and David Schlager '07' share their memories of high school to their graduating class. They were chosen out of a variety of students to represent and lead the '07 graduating class.

AFTER A BASKETBALL COMPETITION, THESE SENIORS SHOW OFF THEIR HARD EARNED TROPHIES.

VENTURING OVER THE GARDEN, ROBBIE & MATT STAPLEFORD ('10) & '08' AND JASON KLINSTECKER ('08) GO FOR A RIDE ON ALL 2 WHEELS.

VACATION IN YOUR OWN TOWN, THESE SENIORS HEAD DOWN TO THOMAS EDISON PARKWAY FOR A DAY OUT.

GET IN TOUCH WITH YOUR WILD SIDE WITH RANDY WAHLS ('08) AND SCOTT SIEMAN ('08) BESIDE A BUSH LION.

STOPPING FOR A QUICK PICTURE, MIKE ('09) AND KURT AINSWORTH ('10), GIVE THEIR 'THUMBS UP'. "WE WENT TO COZUMEL; THE WEATHER WAS REALLY NICE. WE WENT TO THE BEACH A LOT AND JUST CHILLED," SAYS KURT.

A MOMENT IN TIME, THESE THREE GIRLS DECIDE TO JUMP INTO THE WATER TOGETHER.

PAPER FLYING IN THE AIR, THESE SENIORS REJOICE BY GETTING RID OF ALL THEIR SCHOOL WORK.

Class of 2008

Dillon Ulmer

Well, everyone, we made it. Take a minute to pat yourself on the back and gloat because you know what... we're seniors! We are coming to the end of a milestone. About to break out of our comfort zones, and start something new: our lives. Some will go off to college to further their education. Some will choose to start their careers. Others just aren't sure yet. Whatever the path, it will be nothing like we've ever experienced. Hopefully all of us will succeed.

Although I am frightened to leave this safe haven we've become so accustomed to, I am sure we will prevail. If you can survive high school, you can survive anything. Through the years we have faced our share of challenges. We've overcome tragedies and conquered obstacles. If we could handle the big exams at the end of every semester and the bully at the end of the hall; if we can endure a sickness that just won't seem to go away or hold strong through the death of a loved one; we can do anything.

We have adapted to new principals, new policies, and outlived the dreaded press. After this year nothing will be the same. Friends may drift, homes may change, and goals may shift. What will remain the same, however, are the memories of this place; whether they are good or bad. We will remember our favorite teachers whom we spent all our time sucking up to. We'll remember the table in the lunchroom where all the gossiping went down, and the friends that stuck by us through it all. Through time, the details might get fuzzy, but these memories are far too important to ever forget.

Never let the memories of Northern High School leave you. Use what you've learned here as a guide to your future.

And one last thing...

Good luck, Class of 2008, in everything you do!

SMART GUY

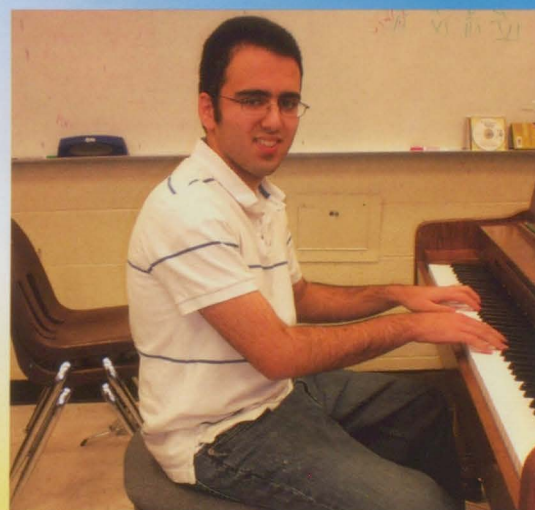

He's a member of S.H.A., he's a student striving for success, and he's been attending Port Huron Northern for the last four years. He's Payam Sadry...How well do you know him?

A member of the class of 2008, Payam is a student who has high hopes for his future and is determined to achieve. "I think that school is mildly related to every day life...it determines your future, but on the other hand there is more to life than school." He also feels that it's important to remember that there's time and place for everything...school being vital, but there's always a need for relaxation and a little bit of goofing off.

Outside the halls of Northern, Payam is an avid piano and violin player, he volunteers in community events and is a teen volunteer at Port Huron Hospital. Payam is also very proud of his Iranian ethnicity which he is proud to share.

He's survived high school with the rest of us and he's given Port Huron Northern a scholar to look up to who is going to go far in life. To all underclassman Payam advises, "Find balance. Learn to do a bit of everything. Get the most fun out of high school but keep your goals in mind and within reach."

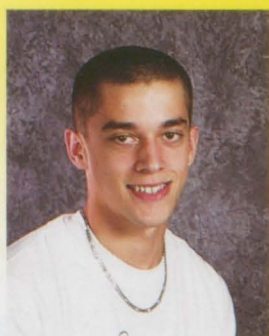

By: Allisyn Moore

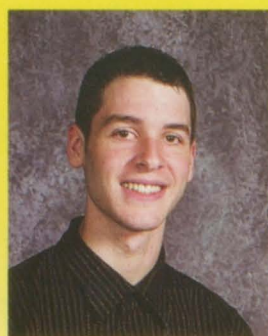

Enjoying the moment, Payam Sadry ('08) proves his musical ability. Piano playing has been a major part of Payam's life.

What was your best High School Memory?

My best high school memory was during freshman year, the last day for seniors, when they pulled the fire alarm 5 times for the class of '05, they had a food fight "C" lunch, almost half the school was involved, and they let off stink bombs in the hallways. That was the best senior prank ever, its going to be pretty hard to top that.

-Chelsea DuPree

My best high school memories are the football, and basketball games. The energy of the students, and the atmosphere made it really fun.

- Anthony Giammarinaro

Just knowing that I made a tremendous turn around in my attitude towards many things.

-David Rusch

My best high school memory would have to be class with Mr. Mannlein he is so energetic and funny, it's the only class I never fell asleep in. He had little turtles, and got a new one like every week, I loved it.

- Mike Brittain

Going to Lansing for skills USA for TEC, and being able to compete in it. We stayed for 3 days with friends and watched people I know get medals.

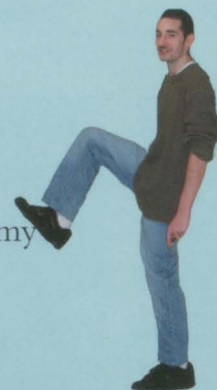

-Sarabeth Harju

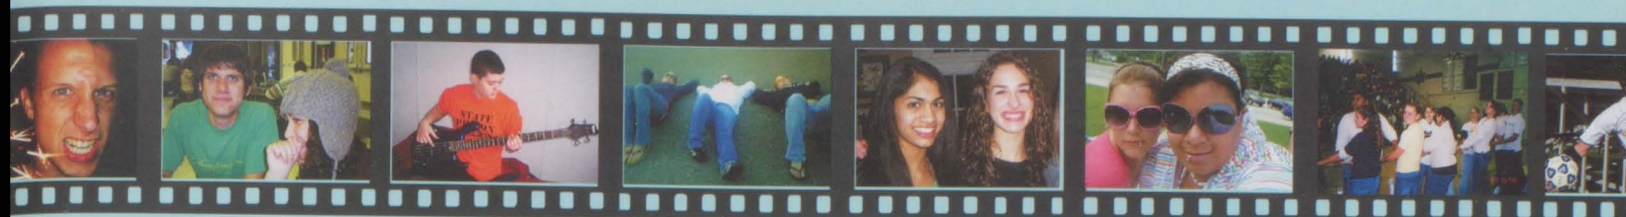

Watching the now defunct Pop-punk trip "Slip and Fall" perform at battle of the bands sophomore year.

- Austin Goodrich

Tearing up the Slopes at Mount Holly Tyler Gostinger ('08), Katie Miller ('08), Lindsay Guyette ('08), and Jamie West ('08) take a break to warm up. The gang took advantage of the short exam week and hit the snow.

What are you going to miss most about High School?

Seeing all my friends, and knowing I don't have to grow up yet!
-Cassandra Grimson

I'm going to miss seeing my friends every-day! Advice to next year seniors ignore all the drama.

-Brianna Guilds

The thing I will miss the most about high school is having all my friends together. Once we all attend college it's going to be hard for us to get together again.

- Emily Muir

Everything the closeness to everybody. I'm just gonna miss the high school life of partying, drama, and partying.

-John Nevado

Playing all High school sports, and leaving my friends that I have been with since I first started, The teachers who have influenced me to excel to do my best.

-Andrew Fadell

I will definitely miss band the most. I have many good memories, especially from band camp.

-Erin Bryce

Goofing off and throwing horseshoes
Andy Cook tries to distract Nick McPhail(08') as he aims for the pole. Find out results of game.

The thing I'm going to miss the most about high school is being with all my friends and watching all the fights in the hallways.

-Shelby Feher

Advice to next years Seniors?

Don't stress too much, and enjoy it while you can.
Graduation comes fast.
-Ashley Morgan

Shampoo is better, it goes on first and cleans the hair.
-Abigail Serafin

Mike Wydzynski ('08) and Jana Nakhleh ('08) are found chilling in Mr. Labelle's room with Jamie West ('08) and Dave LaBelle ('08). The four were preparing for a class meeting.

Don't waste your time trying to dress, act, talk, or be anyone else. You're probably going to spend a lot of time trying to figure out who you are, but you don't have to copy everyone else's styles. Create your own. Become the trend setter, and most important be yourself.
-Melody McPhail

Getting in some fresh air Michelle Mastria ('08), Paul Prax ('08), Ashley Wilson ('08), and Brad Ward ('08) take a break from lunch to mosey outside. Like everyone else in Michigan the group is excited about the nicer weather.

Conditioner is better, it leaves the hair feeling silky smooth!
-Rachelle Randall

"Resist everything except temptation." -
Oscar Wilde
-Kimberly Ferguson

I thought about giving advice that would be both memorable and worthwhile, but I think by now you've all heard it all so instead I'll just say, "Good Luck."

-Taylor Foglesong

Live it up but you'll never do it better than us because Seniors'08 CAN'T BE TOUCHED.

- Kathrine Kurkoski

Work hard, play even harder.

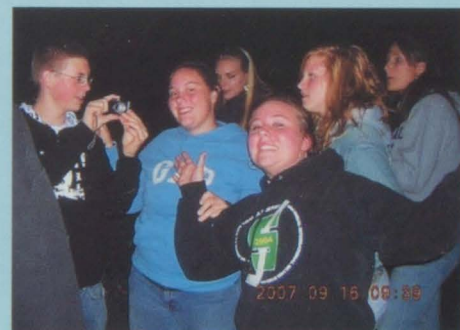

-Angela Wilcox

My advice to next years seniors would be to just get through P.O.D. and you will be golden. Also make sure you have a release hour too. Don't over load yourself.

-Lindsey Guyette

Hanging out at a party, the group takes a break from the hot tub to have some snacks. These friends never give up an opportunity to get together.

Just hanging out, Louis Koob (08') dangles from the rip cords on a rock wall. Koob and his friends were rock climbing.

Fear not newpoints, they are but an interesting fact in life.

Almost everyone has at least thought about studying abroad. Imagined themselves in a completely new and interesting place. For most this never happens, but for the few exchange students here at Northern and for our own classmate Meghan Zdrojowski ('08) that dream has become a reality. Meghan was chosen to spend her senior year in Japan as a foreign exchange student. Northern may have lost a senior to Japan, however we also gained a student from there as well, Go Takei ('08). First being sent to Port Huron High School and then transferring to Northern gracing us with his presence. Initially trading plaes with Meghan. They should swap notes.

Will Weis has developed a passion for history which has lead him to his recent study in Mythology. Mythology is the study of ancient stories, traditions, or beliefs that a group of people believe. Will was drawn to the Mythology course because of the amazing teacher Mr. Mannlein. "Mr. Mannlein plans numerous projects to make the class interesting," Will says, "We once did a three week project on Apocalyptic Myths by creating a concept web." Outside of school, Will Weiss enjoys just being a normal kid hanging with his friends.

The Chronicles of Tyler Henry

By: Jenna Sparling

What if there was a person who always had a story to tell? A person who could make everyone laugh with just one story? Well, such a person does exist and his name is Tyler Henry ('10). Tyler Henry is originally from Jackson, Tennessee and moved to Port Huron in 2001. In Tyler's spare time, he plays golf for fun and football with his friends, but his favorite thing to do is talk.

Tyler is the guy that always has a story to tell. Some of his stories include: "One time I was running through the house and fell down the stairs. I got back up and started running again and I ran into a glass door and broke it." "I tell three to four stories a day," Tyler stated. "I laugh with people when they laugh at me."

“CULLEN” ALL ACTORS By: Eric Ruelle

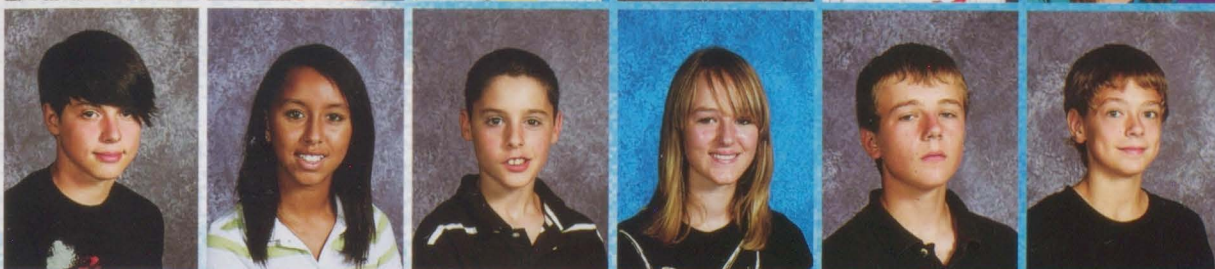

With nowhere to go and no script to turn to, Cullen Willard ('09) has only his brain, his body, and his fellow actors on stage to act out a scene in front of a large audience who have high expectations. It's not like this is a new experience for him. Cullen has been a part of theater since he was a child. His experience includes eleven different shows in Port Huron Civic Theater. This year, Cullen performed in his premier play for the PHN Drama Club. He received the part of Mr. De Pinna in You Can't Take it With You. It's hard being an upcoming actor in Drama Club, but Cullen fit in well with the mix. "It's amazing the Cullen is very busy acting and studying, but when he gets a chance he likes to play the guitar and mingle with his friends. After high school he wants to pursue a career in acting.

"My favorite movie is Mad Max, I like those end of the world movies, based on society's choices."- Steve Dennis. "The one thing that most students don't know, is that their responsibility is another persons responsibility."

Mr. Dwyer Jr. had this to say about his student teaching experience here at Northern: "Both students and staff were extremely helpful any time I had questions, and being a student teacher, I had a lot of them."

Go Kamer, Go!!!

By: Eric Ruelle

How does waking up at 7 AM and running twenty-six miles in 88 degree weather sound to you? Well, mind you, this race is being conducted nowhere near Port Huron, but in Chicago, Illinois. Was that a second thought? To be honest, if running a marathon isn't quite your cup of tea you're not alone. Less than .1% of the world's population can claim to have reached the finish line of a marathon. Port Huron Northern is lucky enough to have someone from that very small minority. Ms. Kamer represented Northern in the Chicago Marathon on Sunday October 27th, 2007. The race started in Centennial Park and ran past the Lincoln Park continuing on a variety of turns through the downtown area, finishing back at Centennial Park. Kamer also participated in the race in 2006. Her training for the marathon started in June, gradually building up her mileage. On the day of the race, the temperature was above average for an October day, and people were nervous about the chance of heat stroke and dehydration. It was reported that one runner died and around 30 were hospitalized, and over 400 others sought medical attention. After three and a half hours, the half way mark, runners were advised to stop running due to the heat. Ms. Kamer didn't need to worry about that though; she finished the race with a time of 3:57:10. "I've always wanted to run a marathon," Kamer admitted. "I spent the last four months training and all of a sudden it's there, and you just really want everything to go right."

Blue—the course that Ms. Kamer ran

If you haven't seen Ms. Kamer around in the halls, you might have mistaken her for a student. In fact she fits right in. She graduated from Northern in 2002 and is back as a full time teacher after substitute teaching around the area. "If you would've told me when I was a student here that I would be working here, I wouldn't have believed you," Kamer said about the homecoming, "the students are different but a lot of the teachers are the same. It's a bit weird (seeing the teachers again)."

Whatever you call her: Coach, Kamer, or 'that one teacher', Ms. Kamer has a lot going for her here. She was the coach for the girls cross country season and she would implement training techniques she learned at Albion College near Battle Creek, Michigan. Ms. Kamer also teaches a variety of students. During the day she teaches an advanced algebra class, three math labs, and supervises the homework lunches during fourth hour. It would seem though that if you can run a marathon, teaching at Northern must seem like a breeze.

You're The Star

If your life was a movie...

What would the title be?

Who would be the director?

Who would play you?

Sean Murphey

Movie title: "Shooter," because I want to join the Marines and be a sniper.

The director: Adam Sandler, his movies are the funniest things I have ever seen.

The actor: Adam Sandler or Pete Dante, because they are both hilarious.

Courtnei Jawor

Movie title: "Day by Day"; you can only live your life day by day because you don't know what could happen.

The director: Hope Frizzle, we already make funny movies and she gets where my ideas come from.

The actor: Anyone smart and dumb at the same time.

Ashley Bennett

Movie title: "As Told By Me"; because I would want it to be in my point of view.

The director: My mom and my best friend because they would make it a good movie and make it accurate since they know me best.

The actor: Reese Witherspoon because she is so cute and she is a good actress.

HOLLYWOOD

Alyssa Schartz

Movie title: "All About Me," because it needs to always be about me.

The director: Stephen Spielberg or myself or Alicia Wilson because she's my best friend and would know how to make it.

The actor: Catherine Heigal from "Knocked Up" and "27 Dresses."

Alex Nelson

Movie title: "Helping Others," because I like being humble and I put myself second to help people.

The director: Jesus Christ, because so far he's directing my life.

The actor: Everyone in my life and because it's my life, everyone that has an impact on me.

Jeff Davis

Movie title: "Friday Night Lights"; life revolves around the game.

The director: Vincent Lombardi because winning isn't a sometime thing, it's an all the time thing.

The actor: Bill Belichick, because he's a football genius.

“Creativity- Characterized by originality and expressiveness; imaginative”

In these days, it's not hard to find someone on MySpace, instant messenger, or Facebook. What is hard though is to find someone painting, writing jokes, or even making movies in their spare time. It gets to be a wonder if it's just the little amount of time a student has or if, in fact, we just hadn't paid enough attention.

Everyone does something well, even though many people don't realize it. At Northern, it's important to show your creativity and talents (within reason). Whether you leave a noticeable mark on this school or not, you will still be remembered long after you walk out of these halls for the last time. Some of us may have three more years left, others two, and for the lucky ones, just a solitary year. It's time to show everyone your talents. Don't be shy; with the talent we have here, you're bound to find someone else with the same talent.

Putting the final touches on her Spanish hat, Kelli Corsetti ('08) shows off her work of art. As a part of second year Spanish you get to make hats for Language Day.

Working on her shirt for Foreign Week, Hannah Gonder ('09) begins tracing her shirt in paint. During Foreign Week, all the language students get together to celebrate different cultures.

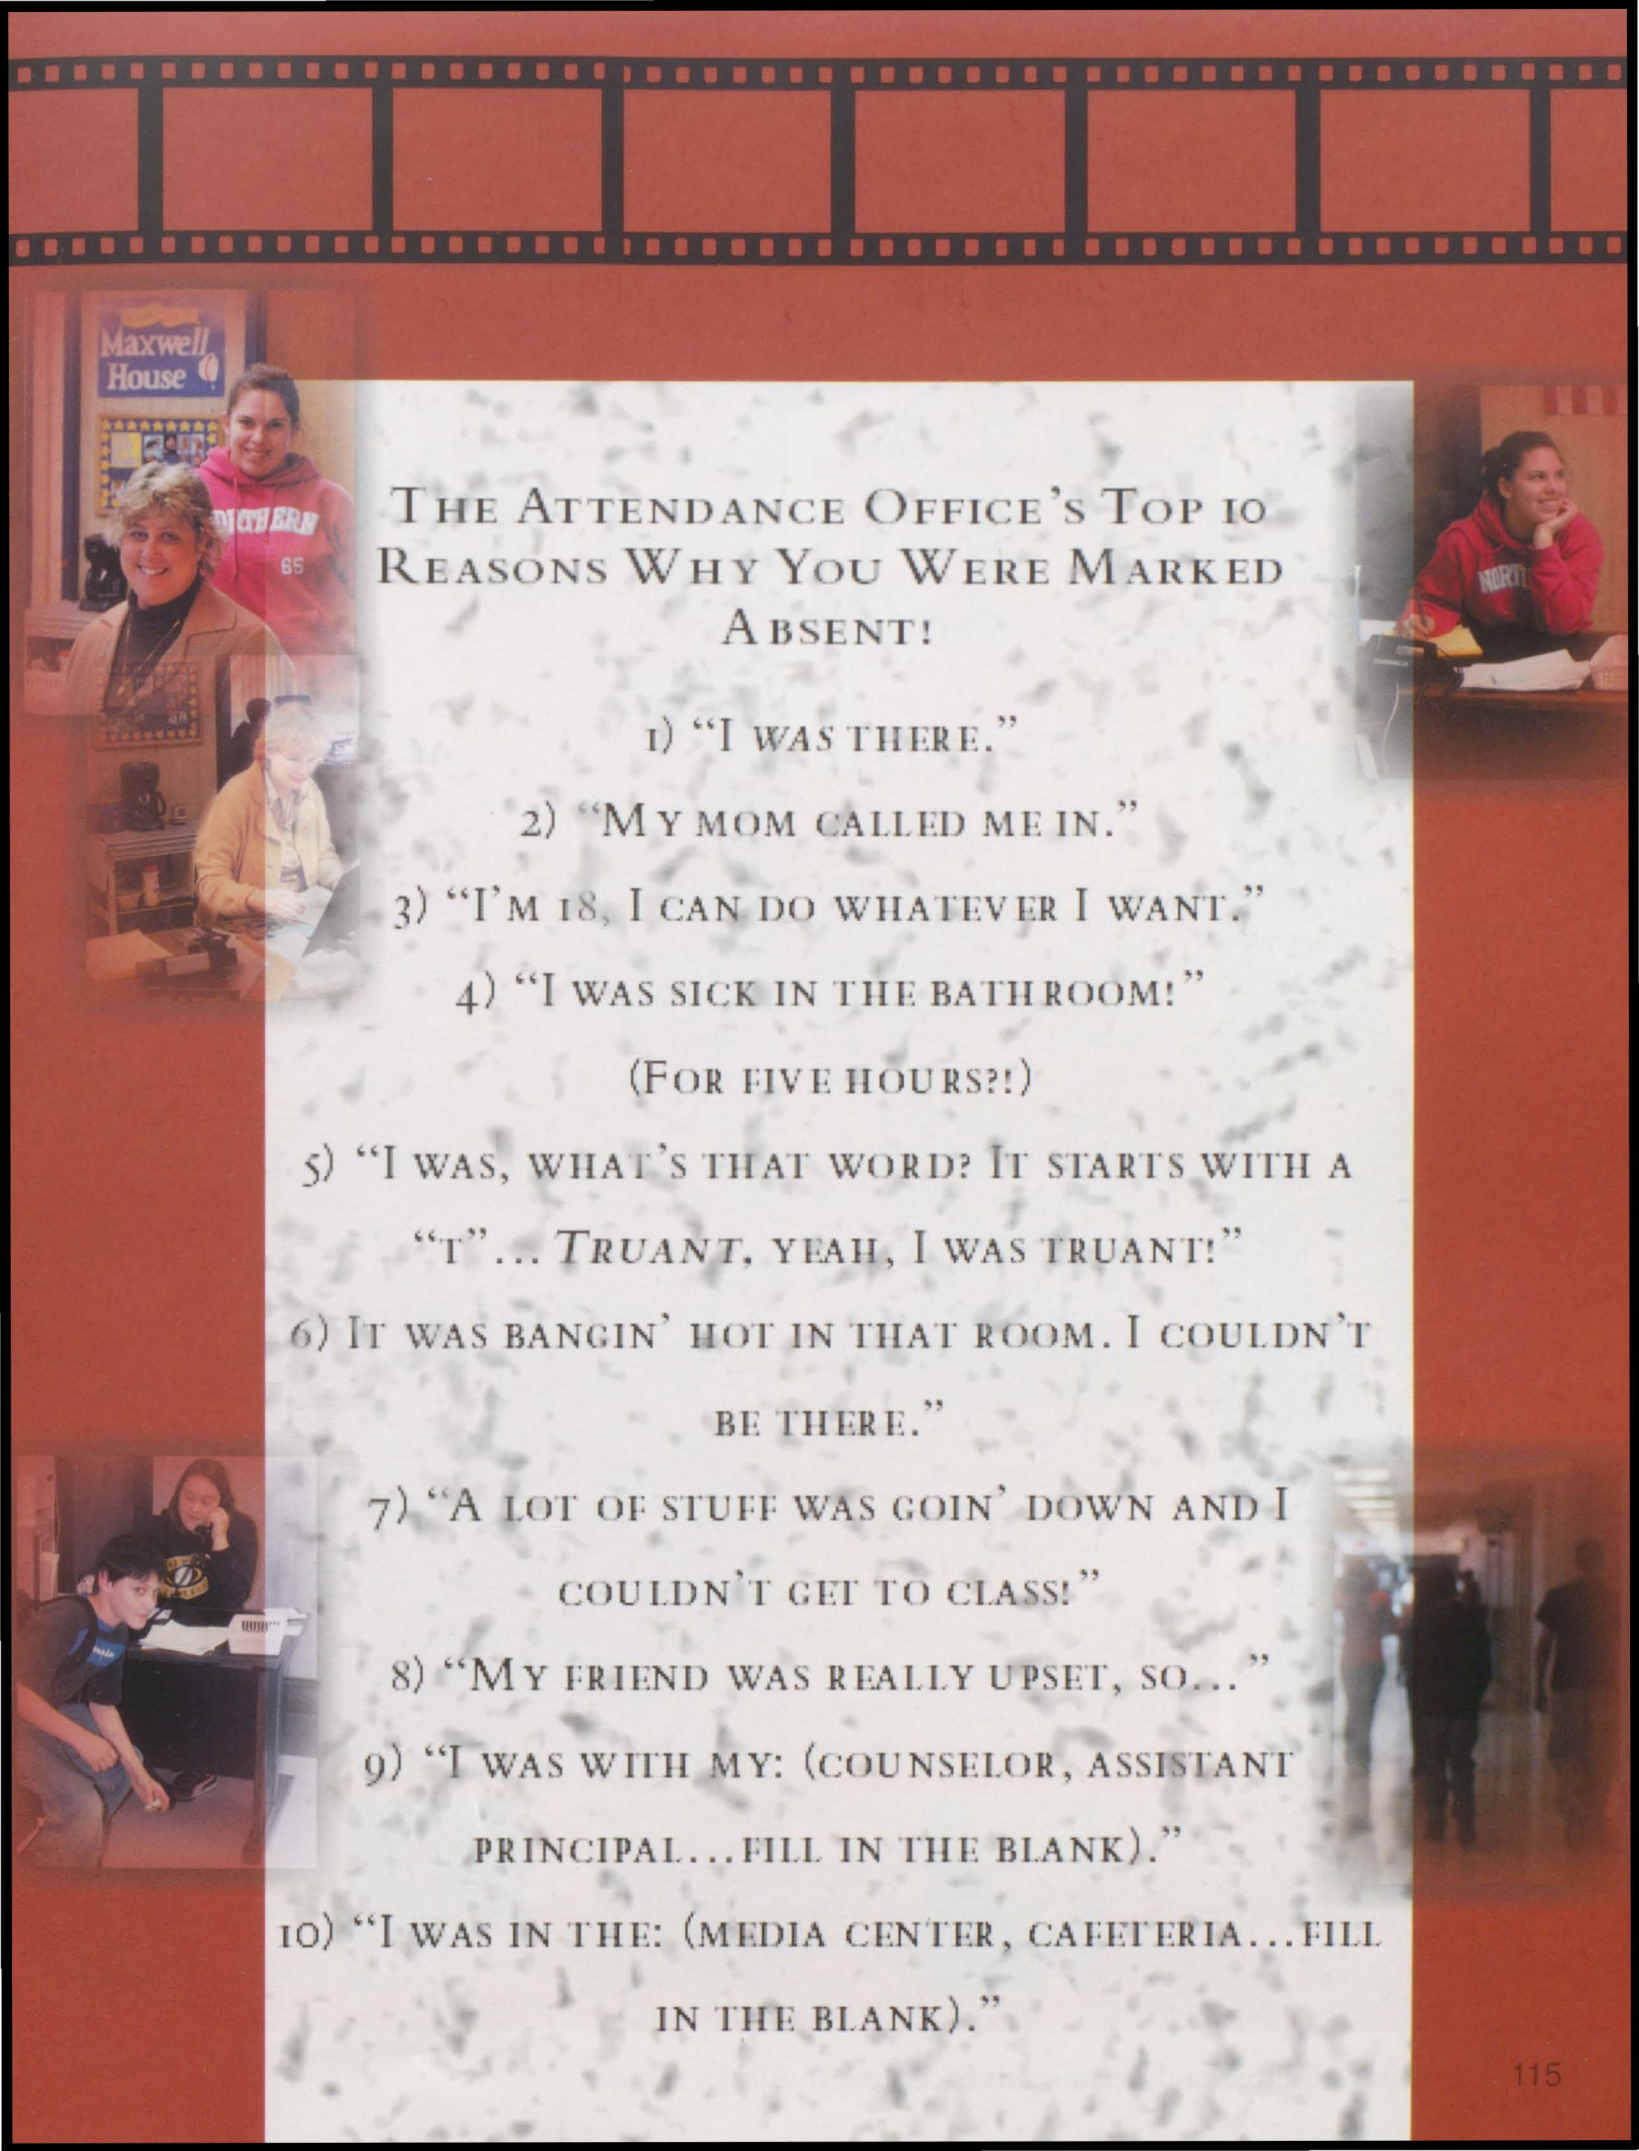

A true artist, Alaine Seyfried ('08) paints on Mrs. Hartson's wall. Mrs. Hartson is the Japanese teacher and her room has become symbolic of everything that is Japanese.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

Imagine...

You're walking down the street in your pinstripe skirt suit and black patent heels, leather brief-case in hand...You're jumping into your bunker pants and hopping into a bright red firetruck, ready to save lives...You're making your first incision as your patient lies on the table, their life in your hands...You're fulfilling your life long dreams and goals, those of which you built up to during your four years in high school. You're presenting yourself as the distinguished and accomplished career man/woman that you have worked so hard to become.

High school isn't all about the parties, the Friday night football games or the drama we all encounter. High school is the building block of our future. It is now when we begin to get our first tastes of the real world, begin to focus on what we want to become, and put our goals and dreams into a realistic perspective.

As a child, we sit and dream about what we'd like to become, and as we grow and change, we realize that we have the possibilities to become whatever it is our heart may desire. "As a child I always wanted to be a pediatrician," says Freshman Chelsea Campau, "I liked playing doctor as a child with my cousins and friends. I enjoy helping people." Ironically for Chelsea, that dream of being a pediatrician is still being held to tightly. Senior Andy Cook is aiming towards a career in law enforcement and his dream college is Harvard because it provides some of the best education around.

No matter what the future holds, and since we all know that the future is virtually unpredictable, it's fun to dream, it's fun to plan. Will these goals be met? Maybe. Will we be successes? We all have the possibility. High school is just the starting point that will take us to the place in life that we will work hard to reach...the final presentation! -Alli Moore

Danielle Rabine ('10) practices her "tough" look dressed in her firefighter garb. Danielle isn't sure what she'd like to do with her life, but really liked the feeling she got in the uniform!

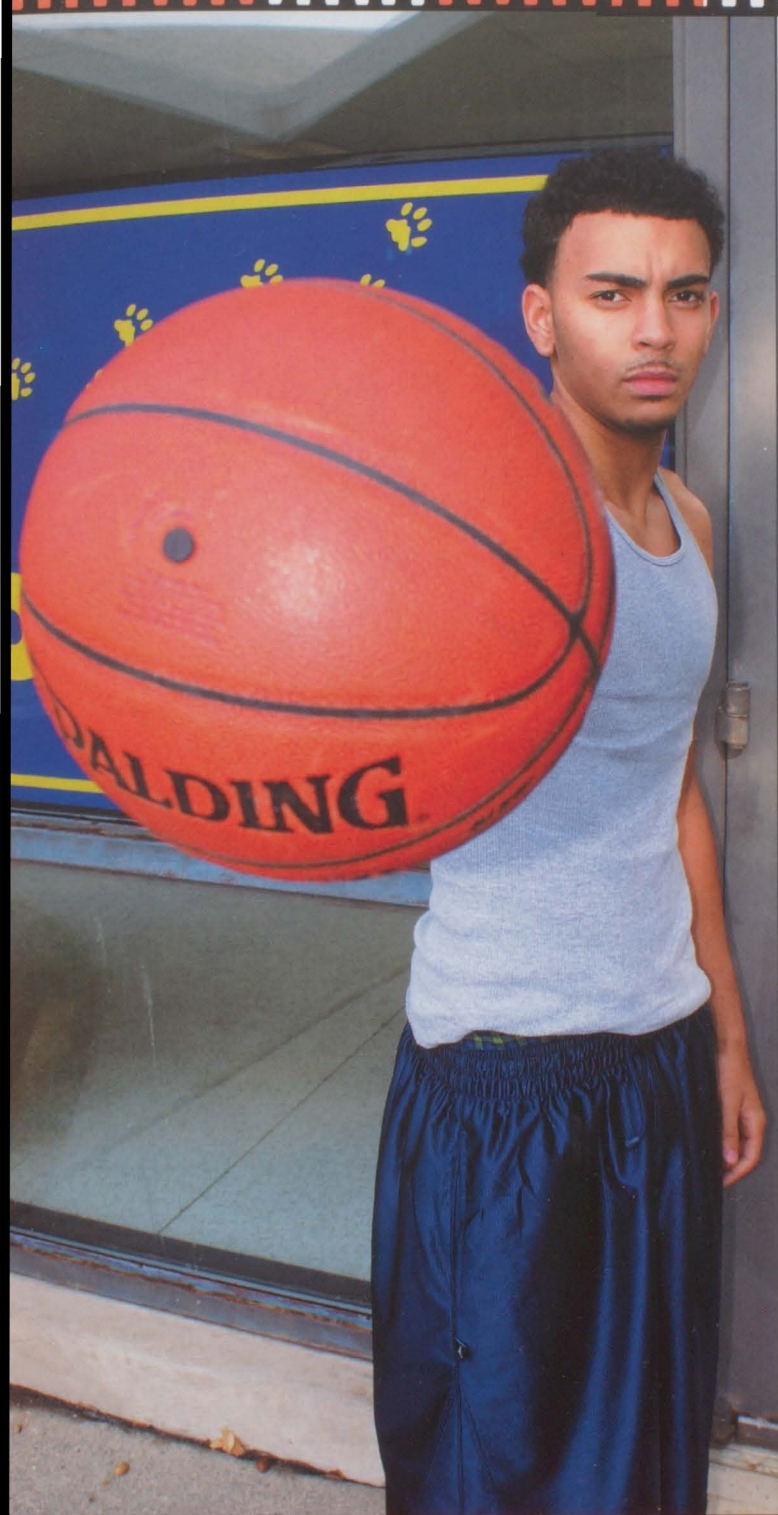

"I am looking into becoming an athletic trainer. I like to be involved with sports and I'm also good with people."
-Jamie West ('08)

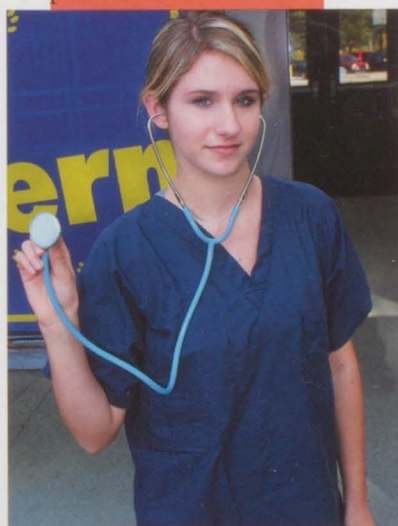

"I am not exactly sure what I want to do yet, but I am thinking about going into veterinary medicine."
-Poonam Jewani ('08)

"I want to live on a farm and write books for children. It sounds like a lot of fun and it's an environment I like."
-Danielle Rabine ('10)

Cheyenne Johnston ('09) takes down Biology notes in her morning science class. Cheyenne hopes to become a part of the medical field and wants to gain as much science knowledge as possible.

Spencer Thomas ('08) proudly shows off his basketball skills. Could there be a pro career in his future? Who knows!!!

Hometown Heroes

Imagine a life long dream coming true... For these three firefighters, it has. Pat Moore, class of 1971 had always dreamed of being a firefighter. "Ever since I can remember it was the job I knew I was meant to do. I even remember running around the fire station when I was a kid; it's always been a part of me."

Pat Moore ('71), Nathan Papinaw ('97) and Rob Montgomery, ('99) are just three of Port Huron's bravest. Working out of Engine 3 on Sanborn and Pine Grove, these firefighters were each graduates of Port Huron Northern.

The job isn't easy, and not many are able to do it. Rob, Nathan and Pat are alumni who are representing PHN very well, and are living their dream. "We love helping people," smiles Rob, "it's a great job and we enjoy giving back to our community!"

"I always wanted to be a dentist. My sister and I used to cut smiles out of magazines and glue them on paper."
-Jackie Graham ('09)

"I think firefighting would be a great career to have, I guess it's just a matter of whether I have what it takes to do the job."
-Gabrielle Armstrong ('11)

bringing in foods of all sorts. Ken Kobberstad, ('10) who is in Chemistry this year, celebrated by making a t-shirt and eating with his class. Many teachers use Mole Day as an opportunity to give out extra-credit and students jump at the chance! Alexis Marchlewicz, ('10) pictured above says "celebrating Mole Day was a lot of fun, moreso than I expected. Getting extra-credit really sealed the deal!"

It's October 23. It's a very special day in the life of scientists everywhere. MOLE DAY, represents Avargados Constant, 6.02×10^{23} . This is a very special day here at Northern as staff and students in various science classes celebrate the day making Moles, T-shirts, posters and Carefully constructing their Physics project, Aaron Adams, Evan Redmond and Michael Israel, all of ('09) group together to bounce ideas off each other. Group projects are a plus in this class!

Mad Scientists

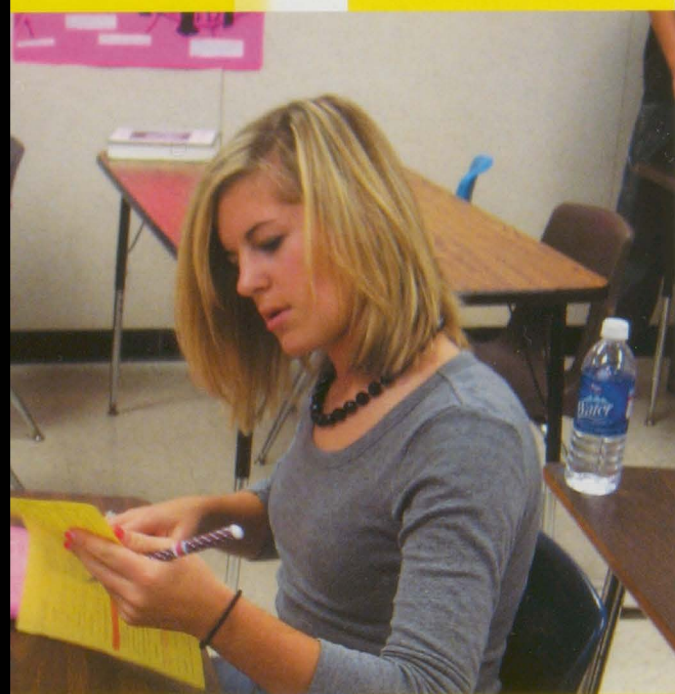

Science is all around us; it's unavoidable. At Northern, a wide variety of Science classes are offered for students who love the subject or need it for their future careers. Paul Prax, ('08) says he wanted to take Anatomy because he's interested in a career in the medical field, and a background with Anatomy would be important.

Each Science class is filled with exciting projects, readings and labs which really add the character of the courses. "My favorite part of teaching Earth Science is looking at things that take place on the Earth-weather related topics that people can relate to because they just saw it happen," says Mr. Mark Dickinson. Even teachers gain excitement through their topics of study, and when they're involved, learning for our students becomes even more exciting. Mr. Adolph, one of our Biology teachers chose a career in science, specifically Biology because he feels it touches on many other sciences.

Whether science is your greatest passion or you're filling up your schedule to accommodate a future career goal, you won't be disappointed with any of the classes offered here at PHN.

Stealing HARVARD

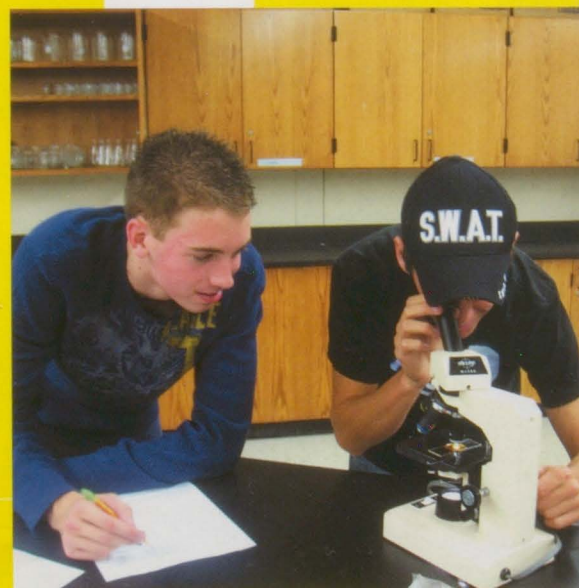

Working hard on AP Biology, Devon Fenner ('09) takes time to look over her notes. Students in AP Biology are always kept busy with worksheets, pop quizzes and of course, college level tests.

David Zimmer and Nick Beebe both of ('09) buckle down on their AP Biology Lab. In AP Bio students get a wide variety of the science world and can take what they learn into everyday life.

Emily Muir, ('08) works on AP Literature homework in Mrs. Devendorf's class. AP Lit students are always kept busy with mind enriching work, helping to prepare them for college.

It's All About A.P.

Imagine one summer afternoon you receive a letter in the mail from your teacher and it has a list of work that you have to complete before school starts. What a nightmare, right? Well for students taking the A.P. History course, this is a reality. Alex Baker of the class of 2010 replied, "When I got a letter for my A.P. History homework, I felt over whelmed and nervous about how much work this class would be." This feeling is expected not only from the A.P. History course but from the other several A.P. classes here at Northern. AP Classes are: (along with A.P. History) A.P. Government and Politics which is formally known as A.P. P.O.D., A.P. English Literature, A.P. Calculus, A.P. Biology, A.P. English Language Comprehension, A.P. Chemistry, and A.P. Statistics.

"The classes move a lot faster and you are expected to have a lot of prior knowledge," which is what J.D. Dunn of '09 discovered in his A.P. Calculus class. You can also expect that the class activities would seem out of the ordinary compared to high school standards. "I enjoyed the A.P. Chemistry lab we did when we dissolved aluminum," said Brian Cox of '09. Lauren Totty ('08) said, "In my A.P. P.O.D. class we have very heated debates about various subjects. Sometimes they're very controversial." And although A.P. classes are packed with work and assignments, some classes do manage to have a little fun. Zachary Eick of '09 says "In my A.P. Biology class, right before we take a test, different students put on a game to review the chapter and it's a lot of fun!" And speaking of tests, what is an A.P. test like? Mr. Artman, (the A.P. History teacher)'s advice on this sort of issue is that "A.P. classes are actual college courses and you have to be prepared for the amount of reading that an A.P. class requires."

After finding out all of the challenges that A.P. students have to go through you have to wonder why someone would challenge themselves to this extent. So whether it be a challenge you're looking for or maybe a head start on a college education, if you have the will and motivation, an A.P. class just might suit you well.

- Joel Smith

Carefully looking through the microscope during a 2nd hour AP Biology lab, Zack Rosemund, ('08) makes his observations. One of the best parts of our AP Biology course are the weekly labs students look forward to participating in!

On the Foreign Homefront

Imagine coming to a foreign country where things are NOTHING like your native land.

Imagine being surrounded by strangers who speak a completely different language and participate in trends that you know nothing about. This is a reality for Go Takei, a foreign exchange student from Japan, spending his year here at Northern.

"I like it here," says Go, a 16 year old junior. "It's a lot different here, but better, much better."

Mrs. Hartson, the Japanese teacher here at PHN is his favorite teacher so far. "I want to go to parties here in America," laughs Go when I asked him what he was looking forward to. Back in Yokohama, Japan, Go has a twin sister and an older sister, and of course, loving parents.

He won't be going home until July of 2008, but he is enjoying his time here in Michigan. There will be nothing like the experiences, and of course the wacky stories that he'll be for surely taking back with him at the end of the year!

Foreign Language class! The title sounds so mundane, or, to some, even boring. But taking a foreign language seems to be a popular choice amongst Northern's students.

There are currently four foreign language classes being offered here at PHN: Spanish, French, Japanese, and German. They all teach students a language, and also allow them to learn about the country's culture, history, and economy.

Whether it be for the knowledge, for the experience, or simply for fun, students have varying reasons why they love their foreign language class. "My favorite thing about taking a foreign language is the opportunity to further my knowledge of cultures other than my own," says Rachel Jokie ('10.) When asked what her favorite thing about taking a foreign language is, "Story time!!!" says Elizabeth Wallace ('10.)

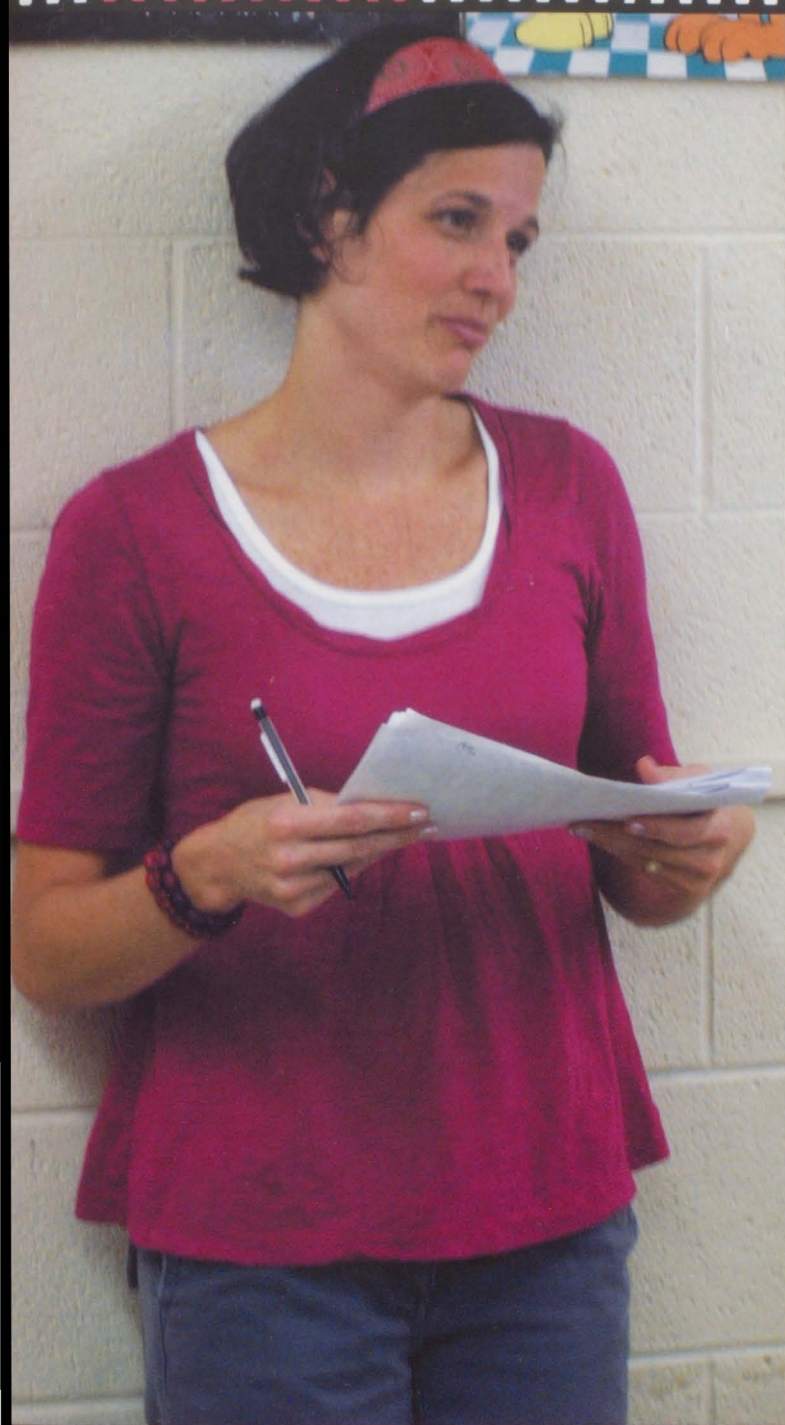

But are the classes challenging? Or are they too easy? "I think foreign language is easy if you do all the work," says Christine Pennington, ('10) "It's not very hard to catch onto."

Taking a foreign language is required to graduate, whether it be easy, hard, fun or challenging. But it's good to know that people are enjoying the classes instead of just enduring them.

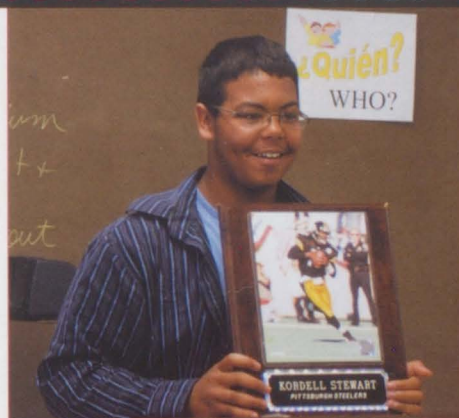

-Devyn Rossi

Learn the Lingo!

Senora Leon watches her Spanish class give presentations. This is Senora Leon's first year back after a two year teaching break.

Montez Elash ('10) shows off his favorite football picture during Spanish class 5th hour. "I love football and Spanish; the two go well together, don't they?"

Maria Souphis ('11) quickly glances over notes before a quiz. Taking quizzes in a different language is always a fun, intriguing twist from the average English written assignments.

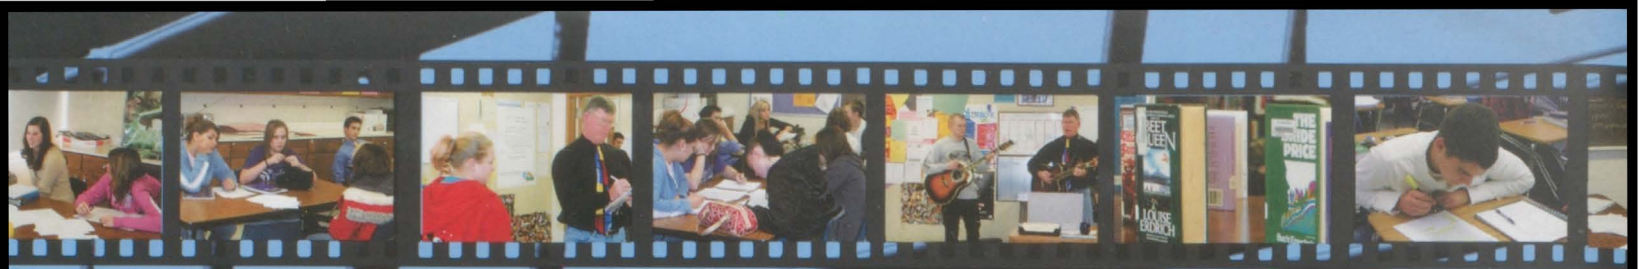

Kayla Zauner ('10) shows off her gymnastics medals from the Junior Olympics. Mrs. Leon had her classes bring in "cultural artifacts" to get to know one another better.

DEEP IN THOUGHT AND CONCENTRATION, DAKOTA WAYNE, CLASS OF 2010 IS CAREFULLY READING THROUGH THE BLACK CAULDRON, FOR A BIG NOVEL PROJECT. "I LIKE IT WHEN WE READ," SAYS DAKOTA, "IT BEATS WRITING STUFF DOWN!"

Freedom W R I T E R S

"LITERATURE ALLOWS A CLASS TO SPEND A FEW WEEKS IN MAYCOMB, A FEW WEEKS IN VERONA, A FEW WEEKS IN GREECE AND AT A NEW LOCATION EVERYDAY."

- MR. ARENA

The Ever-changing, always-growing world of Literature is an exciting one. There are so many different types, so many different ways to study it, and oh so much room for learning. Here at Port Huron Northern, we are offered many different Literature classes that help to expand our minds even deeper into reading, writing and everything in-between.

Whether reading is your passion, writing is your thing or you're in the class merely to graduate high school, you're sure to find something to catch your attention. "We're always doing something fun and interesting in my American Lit class," says Junior Megan Armstrong, "I'm not naturally a literature person, but I'm never bored in this class."

If you want to go above and beyond the challenge of a regular Literature class, there's always AP Language and Composition and AP Literature to keep you busy.

School wasn't created to be fun, exciting and always interesting, but in Lit class you're sure to be kept on the edge of your seat more than just once, so be prepared for whatever might come at you!

The Patriot

On a visit home from one of the most unsettled countries in the world, United States Army Specialist DJ Palm spoke to Northern's P.O.D. classes telling tales of war, unrest and answering questions that students were dying to ask. DJ was a former student at Port Huron Northern High School and never misses a chance to come back and visit with teachers and of course, the student body.

"I thought it was very interesting listening to his point of view on how it really is over in Iraq. He was very honest and didn't hold back on telling us what we wanted to hear," says Whitney Smith, ('08).

"He really provides an insiders account about the events and vibe on the streets of Baghdad," says P.O.D. Teacher, Mr. Crowell. All in all, DJ's visit offers insight and brings awareness about the War in Iraq.

On Portfolio Day, Alizabeth Chickonoski, ('08) and Ryan Ostrander, ('08) give their presentations. Portfolio Day is a major event in the lives of P.O.D. students!

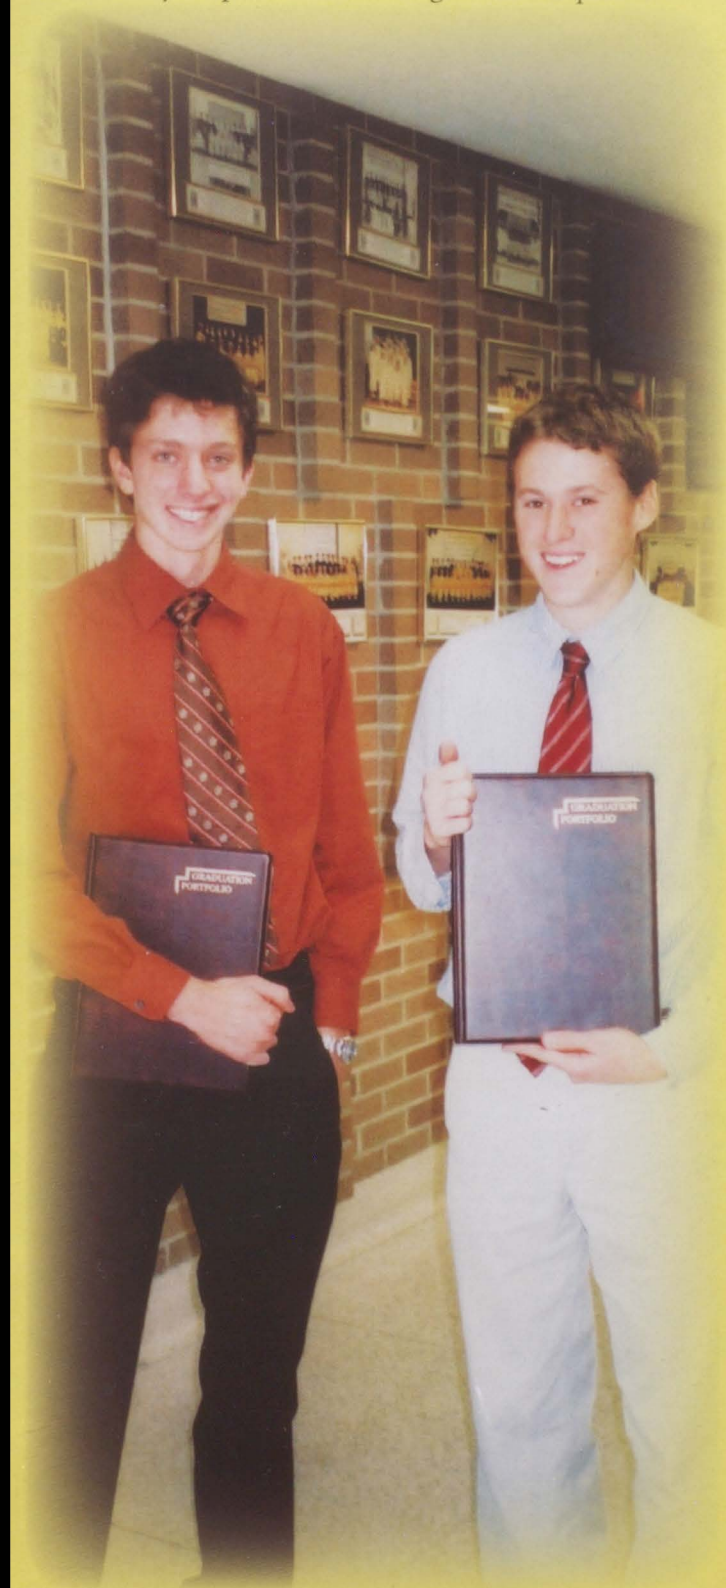

Diligently taking notes in American History class, Amber Carrier ('11) races to finish before the lunch bell. Note taking is a critical part of American History and you can expect lots of it!

Hard at work, Mark Perez, ('11) and Constance Cates, ('11) study hard in American History. The topic of study was the all-exciting "Purple Gang!"

Proudly pausing with their portfolios, Michael Wydrzynski, ('08) and Andrew Gaul, ('08) take a moment to show off their snazzy attire. Dressing up for Portfolio Day is critical as it's always important to make a good first impression.

The Land Before Time

History, a thing of the past! Why study what has already happened? American History, World History and P.O.D. (Problems of Democracy) are the three main history/government classes offered at Northern. But don't forget the electives which are represented by Geography and Michigan History.

Spencer Smith, ('10) an American History student feels the way they do their assignments is unique and teaches her well. Andrea Bennett, ('09) a student in World History says, "I've gotten a lot closer to everybody in this class through the group projects we do. It's a lot more fun working together rather than individually." Senior Jessica Finley dubs newspoints as her favorite thing about P.O.D. because she feels more aware of the current events going on in the world.

No matter what history you're currently taking or are planning to venture into, you'll always have something to do, something to learn, and memories to make. History may be a thing of the past, but it's helping to shape our futures!

-Alli Moore

The Perfect Score

Guest speaker Dr. Basha speaks about the importance of education and the value of the 3.5 assembly. Every year there is a guest speaker at the assembly.

Foreign Exchange students, Marius Strub ('09), Go Takei ('08), and Annina Steffen ('08) sit together after addressing the school. It has always been a tradition to hear the exchange students speak.

With every reason to smile, Kelci Semrow, ('08) crosses the stage for the last time. The 3.5 Assembly is a very memorable gathering, and can be very emotional for seniors.

Stepping up on stage at the 2007 3.5 assembly, Michael Crawford, ('08) accepts his award. Hard work in academics earns students a chance to be honored once a year.

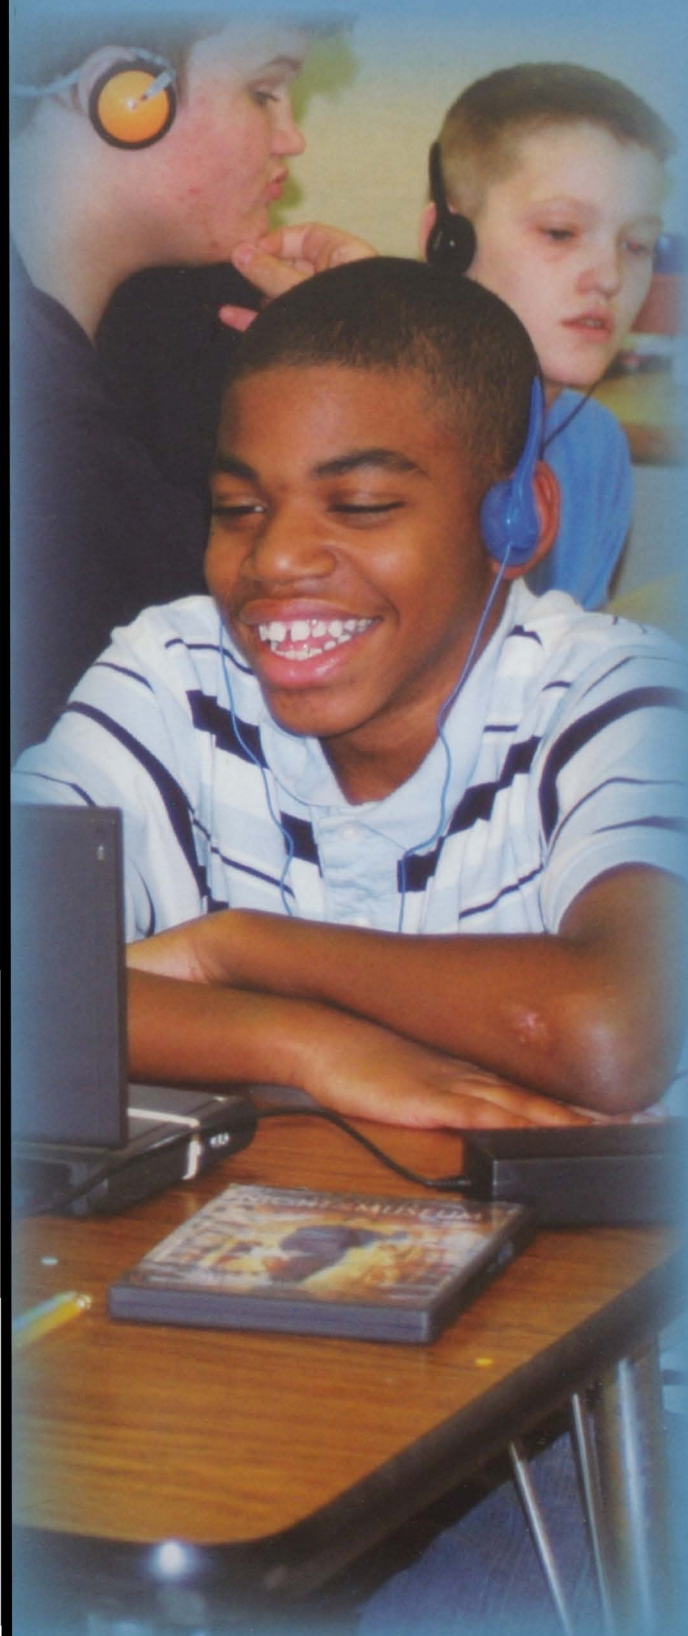

With her certificate in hand, Alison Tseng, ('09) begins walking back to her seat. This was Alison's second year in the assembly!

With their eyes glued to the screen, Curtis Medrano, ('11) and Gerard Ridell ('09) watch "The Night at the Museum." Curtis and Gerald met this year and have become good friends.

Attempting to find a match, Angela Azeem, ('09) and Zac Howcroft, ('11) compete get the most pairs. Zac Howcroft had the most pairs and won the game!

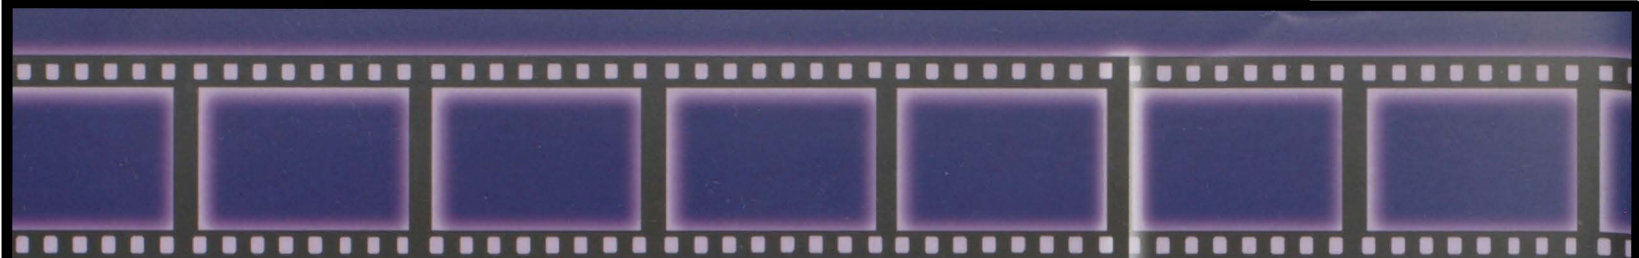

A Beautiful Mind

You pass room 307 every day. You purchase muffins at lunch in the cafeteria. But what do you know about the students who learn within the walls of that small room, striving every day to live up to their fullest potentials? Mrs. Susan Manuilow is just one of many Special Education teachers here at Northern. She feels that teaching each student she comes across according to their ability and helping them realize their potentials is the most important thing about the program offered at Port Huron Northern.

"I love watching and helping kids learn...to see what you've helped them achieve," says Mrs. Manuilow. Walking into her classroom and seeing the smiling faces of her students, obviously here eager and willing to learn makes it all worth it. You really get a sense of what the whole program is about and what kind of amazing difference it's making.

"For my program, I would like more funding for community based education to teach my students living skills more effectively." While they have made very much progress through the years, there are still things that the program needs, such as better funding. Not everyone can do the things that Mrs. Manuilow and the other Special Education teachers do and they deserve more credit than we give them!

Spreading The Spotlight

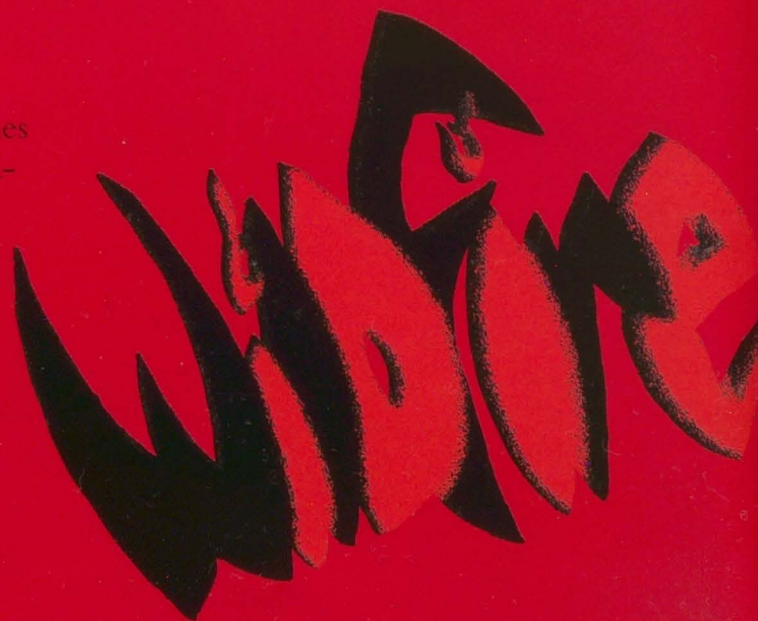

Be the change, the movement sparked by challenge day that is spreading to various high schools is all over the country. A new and popular club here at Northern is Wildfire. Northern's own little chapter. Together they take the concepts and ideas taught at Challenge Day and apply them to everyday life here at school. "I think that Challenge Day changed a lot of people's lives, but it wore off. Wildfire is keeping the spirit of Challenge Day alive." Says Kelsey Frick ('10). So what exactly does Wildfire do? "Our main goal is to get rid of the negative attitude that students have with other students and just get everyone to get along with each other." Explains Shaya Jewani ('10). This new club is doing a lot for our school and student body, developing leadership and supporting new friendships. It is a great organization to be apart of, especially if you like the idea where everyone works as a team.

Student Council

Encouraging students to vote for homecoming, Libby Busdicker ('08) and Sarah Brennan ('08) volunteer to run the ballot table for king and queen at lunch. As officers, Libby and Sarah are very active in student council activities.

Examining the new case file, Danielle Jowett ('10) looks over details that may later be used in competition. Being prepared for anything and everything is a key component in performing well during a trial.

Taking it to Court

The heart pounding intensity of the court room and the heavy silence of the verdict. These are the situations that members of Mock Trial get to experience. Students are presented with an actual case and its file and have to build both a defense and prosecution. When competition time comes around, they take it to court. Sara Rusch ('09) says "The best part of Mock trial is getting to do all the work and it is judged by actual judges!" The team is judged by their overall performances and certain parts of their case, such as their opening statement. Mock Trial may be thrilling, but for many of its members, it is a foundation for the future. "It helps you figure out if you want a career in law and prepares you for actual court cases that a lawyer would get." says Sara. Mock Trial is unique and intense, but our Northern members really know how to take it to court!

SYMPHONIC BAND

Drawing the student body into the Holiday Spirit, Michelle Troy ('08), Jeremy Case ('09) and the flute sections start a song with a soft, emotion filled sound. Music holds power in that it can convey so many feelings through notes.

"Band is a good social opportunity, we spent lots of time together, so we get to be great friends!" Beth Forrester

The flute section of the band is one of the most important sections. It's light and elegant sounds contribute greatly to the overall mood the music suggests.

Adding to the Symphonic Band's "wall of sound" Matt Kobberstad and Ashley Cohe-nour focus on producing the purest tones from their saxiphones.

Playing the trombone, Corey Brittain ('10) and Alex Baker ('10) give it all they've got during the Christmas Assembly. The Symphonic Band prepared for all their performances, as well as all of the other bands, during their class time in school.

"The best thing about Band is being in a musicly mature group and being with alot of friends at the same time." Emily Hager

Showing off the classy couture of Concert Band, Alex Nelson pauses for a shot before the show. The beautiful environment the band performs in, helps to create a professional and classy appearance.

CONCERT BAND

Concentrating on Mr. Senkmajer, the concert band gets ready for the start of the song. They have practiced hard during their fifth hour to be ready for this moment.

In preparation for their big night, the clarinets assemble and warm up in hopes for a perfect performance. Concert Band always strives to present their classmates, family and community with the best quality music that they can arrange.

Demonstrating their dedication, Jazz Band members arrive early before school to practice. The hard work they put into practicing pays off at performances and assemblies.

Helping the student body get into the holiday spirit, Bethany Forrester ('09) and Brad Harder ('08) concentrate on their music. These kind of instruments help to give the band the "jazz effect"

Nailing every note, Stephen Gosman ('08) and Travis Boone ('11) play in sync with their fellow band members to create the ultimate holiday effect.

Playing to their potential, Alexandra Baker ('11) and Corey Brittian ('11) give it all their might at the Christmas Assembly.

ARE WE LOOKING AT THE NEXT

BOBBY FISCHER ?

Photos By: Joel Smith

Before making his next move, Ryan Ostrander ('08) thinks about the pros and cons. A lot of concentration is required in order to plan out an efficient strategy.

Watching as her opponent makes his move, Jamie Uresti ('08) plays an intense game of chess in the media center. Chess Club meets weekly to practice their skills and challenge each other.

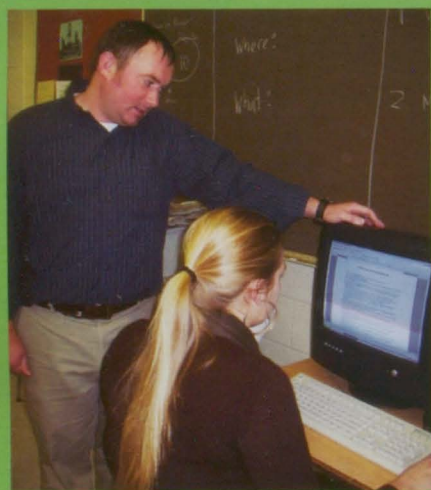

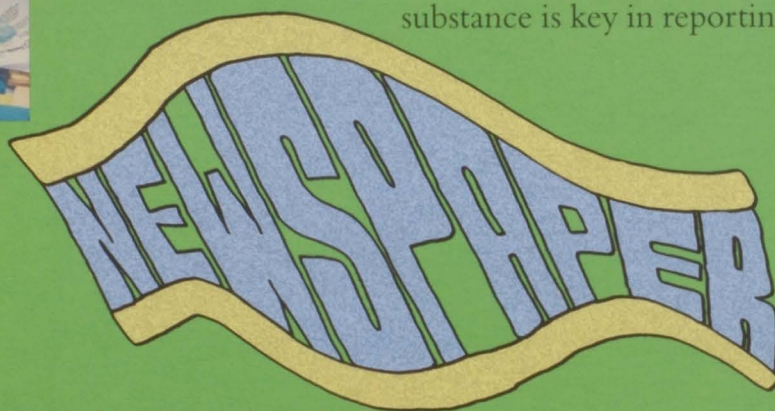

Looking through data, Savanna Salgado searches for statistics for the school's newspaper. Having correct data in their articles makes the Huskey Herald a reliable source.

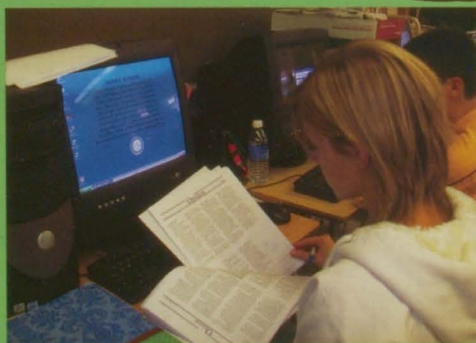

With careful organization, Rachel Heitoff ('09) records details and keeps track of information in Newspaper. Content and substance is key in reporting.

In sync with her advisor, Annina Steffen works with Mr. Becker on a Newspaper article. Annina is an exchange student here this year. How does news at PHN compare with the news in Switzerland?

Preparing to compose an article, Jessie Finlay ('08) looks over her materials. Getting ideas of what to write, before doing so, can help a reporter write a creative and accurate column.

YEARBOOK

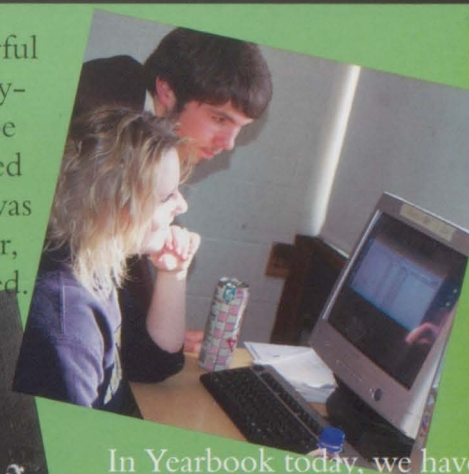

Thanks to InDesign, we can make spectacular spreads and create practically anything we can dream up. After learning all the skills that we need during staff year, an editor works through the steps on a computer to put together the breathtaking pages that we give to you!

Up until the mid-1990's every spread we made had to be designed and measured on a grid. Photo boxes, text boxes and anything that we wanted to put in the yearbook, had to be cropped, measured and marked by hand.

Back before the wonderful days of computers, everything we wrote had to be hand sized and processed on a typewriter. There was very little room for error, and creativity was limited.

In Yearbook today, we have a variety of programs that allow us to create amazing text designs, use hundreds of different fonts and color and position text in almost any creative way we can think of!

WATCHING THE BALL INTENTLY, RACHELLE RANDALL ('08) SETS IT PERFECTLY TO THE MIDDLE HITTER. RACHELLE CONTRIBUTED A LOT TO THE TEAM, WITH BREAKING THE SCHOOL RECORD FOR NUMBER OF SETS IN A SEASON.

PROVIDING A SHIELD AGAINST THE BALL ANGELA SPARLING ('10) AND CASEY CAMPBELL ('08) GO UP FOR A BLOCK. BOTH ANGIE AND CASEY HAD MANY BLOCKS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON, WINNING MANY POINTS.

YOU GOT SERVED!

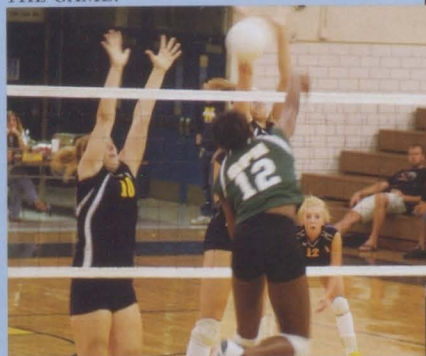

STRONG FOCUS AT THE PEAK OF A SERVE MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE FOR KELSEY LEVEILLE ('09). THE SUCCESS OF THE VOLLEYBALL IS A RESULT OF THEIR DEDICATION TO ALL PHASES OF THE GAME.

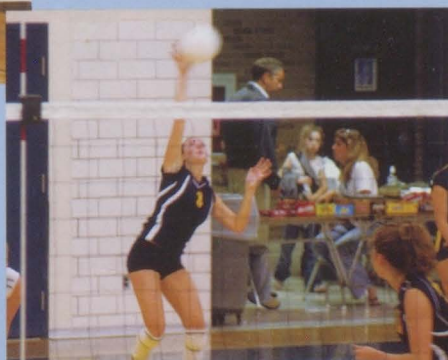

SENDING THE BALL THROUGH THE HAND OF THE OPPONENT ANGELA SPARLING ('10) EARNS A POINT FOR THE GIRLS. ANGELA BROKE THE BLOCK PERCENTAGE IN A SEASON.

GOING UP FOR A BLOCK, CASEY CAMPBELL ('08) TRIES TO KEEP A GROSSE POINTE NORTH HITTER FROM SCORING A POINT. CASEY WAS ONE OF THE 3 VARSITY CAPTAINS THIS YEAR.

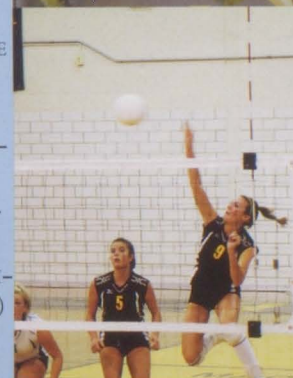

WITH A PERFECT THROW, KELSEY LEVEILLE ('10) IS ABLE TO LAND HER HAND IN THE RIGHT PLACE TO SEND THE BALL OVER THE NET. SERVING IS A MAJOR PART OF VOLLEYBALL, EVERY POINT COUNTS WHICH HELPED TO LEAD THEM TO THE VICTORY AT DISTRICTS, TAKING 1ST PLACE.

WARMING UP FOR THE GAME, MARY HARWOOD ('09) HAS A PERFECT BUMPS TO THE SETTER ALLOWING HER TO SET UP THE NEXT PLAYER IN LINE. THE VARSITY TEAM DID THIS DRILL BEFORE EVERY GAME WHICH PRACTICED EVERY ASPECT EXCEPT SERVING.

JUMPING UP FOR A SPIKE KELSEY LEVEILLE ('09) HAS A WIDE OPEN SPOT TO PLACE THE BALL. AFTER THE SPIKE SHE HAS TO GET BACK IN DEFENSIVE MODE AS MEGHAN SMITH ('09) AND KATHERINE KURKOWSKI ('08) BACK HER UP.

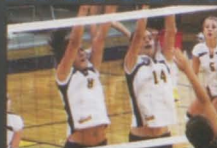

WITH A DETERMINED LOOK, CASEY CAMPBELL ('08) BUMPS THE BALL TO GET HER ADRENALINE UP FOR THE GAME. THE HUSKIES HAD A VERY EXCITING SEASON, WINNING DISTRICTS AND TRAVELING TO UTICA FORD FOR REGIONALS.

GOING UP FOR A BLOCK KRISTIE KOPPINGER ('10) AND HALEY CLARK ('10) COME TOGETHER TO BLOCK THE BALL FROM COMING INTO HUSKIE TERRITORY. BLOCKS ARE A MAJOR PART IN VOLLEYBALL, AS THE GAMES GET MORE INTENSE, THE BLOCKS BECOME VERY IMPORTANT EVEN FOR POINTS.

WINDING UP FOR THE SPIKE, KATHERINE OVERLY ('10) EYES WHAT COULD BE THE WINNING POINT. ONE OF THE STRENGTHS OF THE VOLLEYBALL TEAM IS THEIR DEPTH AT ALL LEVELS.

TIMING THE SERVE PERFECTLY IS THE GOAL FOR KARLEY WARWICK ('11). RALLY SCORING HAS NOT MADE SERVING LESS IMPORTANT SINCE EITHER TEAM CAN SCORE ON ANY SERVE.

WITH AN OUTSTANDING SERVE, SARAH TYNAN ('11) SENDS THE BALL FLYING OVER THE NET.

WITHOUT LIMITS

IN AN EPIC RACE OF THE AGES, NIGEL ELLIOT ('09) SLICES THROUGH THE WATER LIKE BUTTER.

HEAD HIGH, MORGAN MAYER ('09) CONCENTRATES ON HER BREATHING AND PACING. MORGAN RECEIVED HER BEST TIME AT REGIONALS, 27:58.

SURPRISED BY THE CHALLENGES OF THE COURSE, ERIC RUELLE ('08) HAD TO CROSS THIS STREAM, NOT ONCE BUT THREE TIMES. "IT WAS AN UNUSUAL OBSTACLE TO BEGIN WITH, BUT TO DO IT THREE TIMES DURING THE RACE WAS EXTREMELY CHALLENGING," COMMENTS ERIC.

REFUSING TO GIVE AN INCH TO HIS OPPONENT OR THE CHALLENGING COURSE, AJAY ROGER ('08) SETS THE PACE AGAIN FOR THE HUSKIES. AJAY'S WORK ETHIC PAID OFF BY SHAVING TWO MINUTES OFF HIS TIME DURING THE SEASON.

SETTING THE PACE, KATIE HUNT ('11) AND KATIE MULLALLY ('11), MAINTAIN THEIR LEAD OVER THE TRAILING PHHS RUNNER. KATIE MULLALLY SET A PERSONAL BEST OF 25:06 AT THIS MEET.

RUNNING WITH CONFIDENCE, KAITLYN LANGOLF ('08) IS DETERMINED TO OUTCOMPETE HER OPPONENT, EVEN BY THE SLIGHTEST MARGIN. CROSS COUNTRY DEMANDS CONCENTRATION AND A COMPETITIVE SPIRIT.

STEP UP

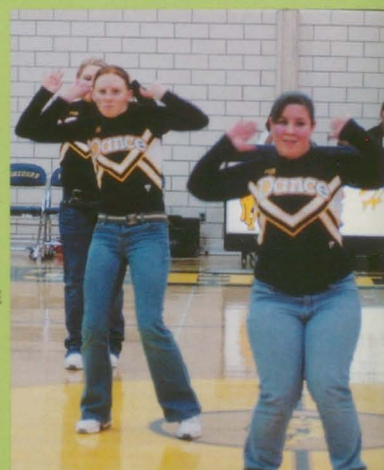

TAKING CENTER "STAGE" KATHRYN SANDNES ('09) STEPS IN FRONT OF THE TEAM TO "GET THE PARTY STARTED." KATHRYN SAYS THAT THE GIRLS GET ALONG "PRETTY WELL, WE ARE ALL ONE BIG 'FAMILY.'"

WHAT A GREAT WAY TO WORK OUT, LAUREN SMITH ('09) SHOWS THE ENERGY IT TAKE TO HOLD THE CROWDS ATTENTION. LAUREN SAYS "MY FAVORITE DANCE MOVE IS CALLED A RUSSIAN."

PRECISION IS A KEY COMPONENT OF A DANCE TEAM PERFORMANCE ANGELIA FLEMING ('09) AND KATHRYN SANDNES ('09) KEEP IN TIME WITH BOTH THE MUSIC AND THEIR TEAMMATES.

PAIRING UP OUT FRONT, ANGELIA FLEMING ('09) AND LAUREN SMITH ('09) SET THE PACE FOR THE REST OF THE TEAM AT THE BEGINNING OF THEIR ROUTINE. LAUREN SAYS THE TEAM RECRUITS NEW MEMBERS WITH "ANNOUNCEMENTS ON THE P.A., POST UP POSTERS, AND TALKING TO INCOMING FRESHMAN."

DISPLAYING AN ENTHUSIASTIC AND ENTERTAINING ATTITUDE, ADREENA MILLER-BROWN ('10) "STRUTS HER STUFF" AT A HUSKY HALF-TIME.

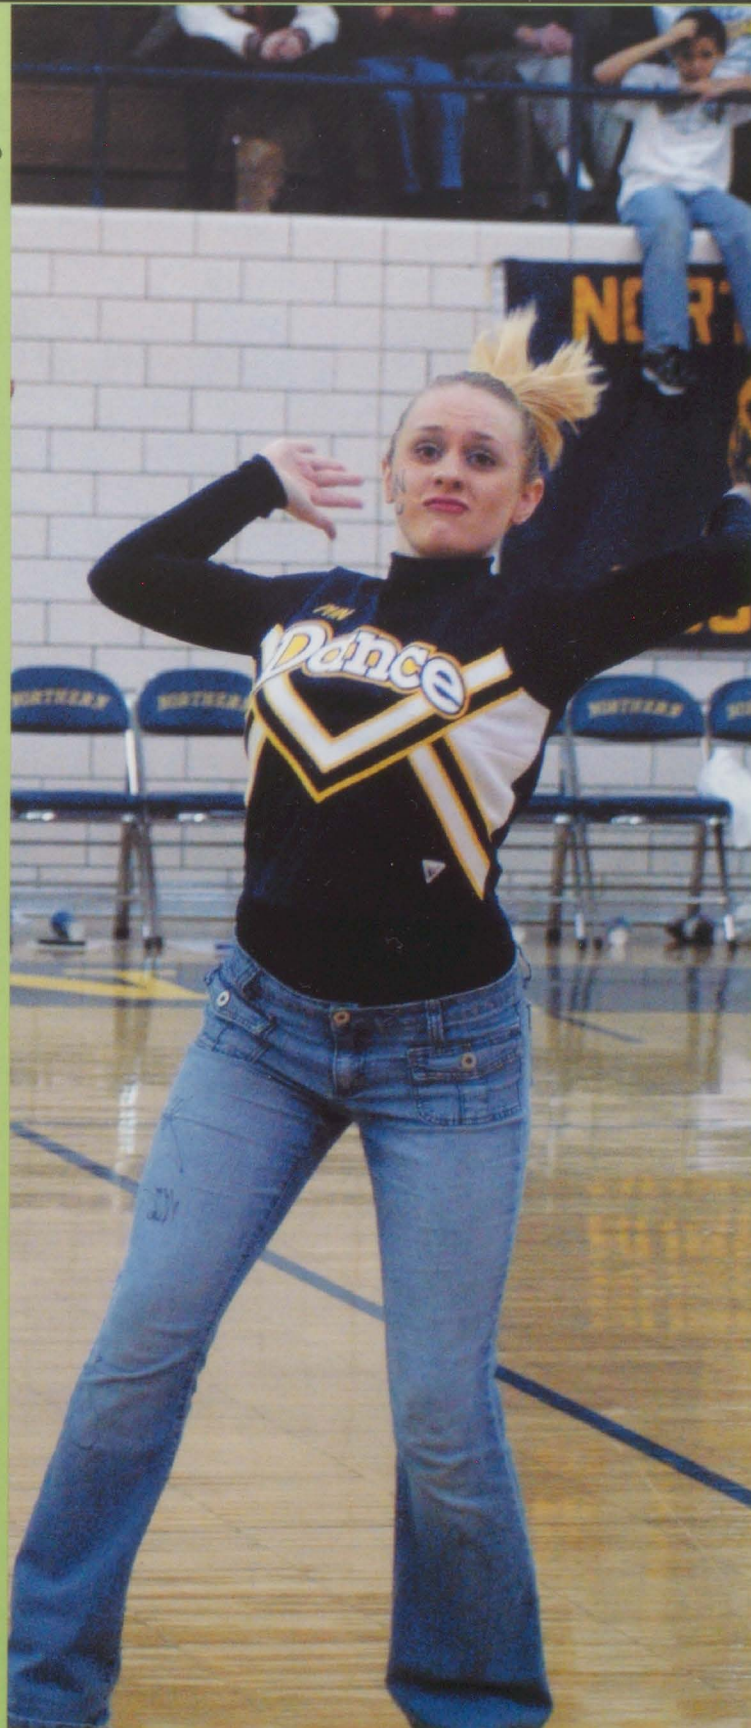

DAZZLING THE CROWD WITH HER BEST DANCE MOVES, LAUREN SMITH ('09) MAKES HALFTIME AT THE BASKETBALL GAME EXCITING FOR ANOTHER PACKED HOUSE OF HUSKY FANS. LAUREN FOCUSED ON THE SONGS, 'THAT'S RIGHT' BY CIARA AND 'CLUMSY' BY FERGIE TO IMPROVE HER DANCE SKILLS.

"MAKE SOME NOISE", IS THE CALL OF THE DANCE TEAM AS ANGELIA FLEMING ('09) PUMPS UP THE CROWD. ANGELIA HAS BEEN BUILDING HER SKILLS AND HELPING HER TEAM SINCE HER FRESHMAN YEAR.

COLOPHON

THIS YEARS THEME "AND NOW YOUR FEATURE PRESENTATION" WAS CHOSEN NOT ONLY FOR A "MOVIE THEME" BUT TO SHOW HOW EVERYONE, YOU AND ME, PRESENTS THEMSELVES IN DIFFERENT WAYS. EVERYONE HAS A CERTAIN PRESENTATION THEY GIVE EVERYDAY WITHOUT REALLY REALIZING IT. TO KEEP THE "MOVIE THEME" THROUGHOUT THE BOOK, THERE IS A FILM STRIP AT THE TOP OF EVERY PAGE FILLED WITH PICTURES WHICH HELPED US GET MANY MORE PEOPLE INTO THIS YEARS BOOK, WHICH WAS AN IMPORTANT GOAL FOR THIS YEARS STAFF. THIS YEARS EDITORIAL STAFF CONSISTED OF FOURTEEN EDITORS INCLUDING EDITORS-IN-CHIEF JEREMY DAVIDSON AND TIFFANY MEYERS AND SECTION EDITORS ALEXIS BAKER, KASIE BOWERS, CHELSEA DUPREE, MARIA HANDLEY, SARA HAYNES, BAILEY LYNCH, ALLI MOORE, KELCEY ROSS, ERIC RUELLE, MALLORY SCHIEMAN, KATEY WILKINSON, AND MICHELLE WISSON, HEADED BY ADVISOR DENNIS DWYER.

THE FORTY-THIRD VOLUME TO THE SPIRIT COLLECTION CREATED BY PORT HURON NORTHERN YEARBOOK AND HERFF-JONES PRODUCTION COMPANY WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO STUDENTS FOR $60.00, WITH ALL 268 PAGES PRINTED IN COLOR, CREATED BY ADOBE INDESIGN CS2 ON 4-COLOR PROCESS BLENDS, WITH THE COVER BEING VTEX-1048 ROYAL BLUE, THE END SHEETS COLORTX, NATURAL AND THE PAPER STOCK 80# BORDEUX.

THE FONT IN THIS YEARS BOOK IS IN AHJ BERGAMO AND AHJ BERGAMO SMALL CAPS. THIS YEARBOOK WAS FUNDED THROUGH BOOK AND ADVERTISEMENT SALES WITH RESOURCES MADE AVAILABLE BY THE PORT HURON AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT.

THE GOAL OF THIS YEARS SPIRIT STAFF WAS TO CAPTURE MORE OF THE YEAR BY PUTTING AS MANY PICTURES IN AS WE COULD, HENCE THE FILM STRIP. BY HAVING THE FILM STRIP AT THE TOP OF EVERY PAGE IT ALLOWED US TO PUT FIFTEEN ADDITIONAL PICTURES ON EACH SPREAD, ULTIMATELY ADDING OVER THREE THOUSAND PICTURES TO THE BOOK.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

THE 2007-2008 PORT HURON NORTHERN YEARBOOK STAFF WOULD LIKE TO THANK EVERYONE INVOLVED IN MAKING THIS BOOK A SUCCESS. FIRST, WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK OUR ADMINISTRATORS: MR. DAHLKE, MR. MOSSETT, MR. Jeremy,

It's here, your senior year and we stand amazed at the young man you have become. We are all anxious and sad for what's to come next. Sad because we know that we won't have you with us each day, yet anxious to see where you go with your life. Your talents are amazing and we know that they will take you far. Imagine the looks on our faces when the day comes when we are sitting in the movie theater and we see your name go across the screen. I think our faces will light the theater right up! We love you so much and are very proud of what you have become. Congratulations on your graduation and Good Luck to you in your years ahead as you fulfill your biggest dreams.

A YEAR IN REVIEW

WRITTEN BY JEREMY DAVIDSON

It was like watching a movie. You were thrown forward from the moment the story began. With time, you became more comfortable with your surrounding classmates and teachers. You faced obstacles. Like jump roping, crab walking, lunging over hurdles... all to finally miss that slam-dunk you've been practicing all week.

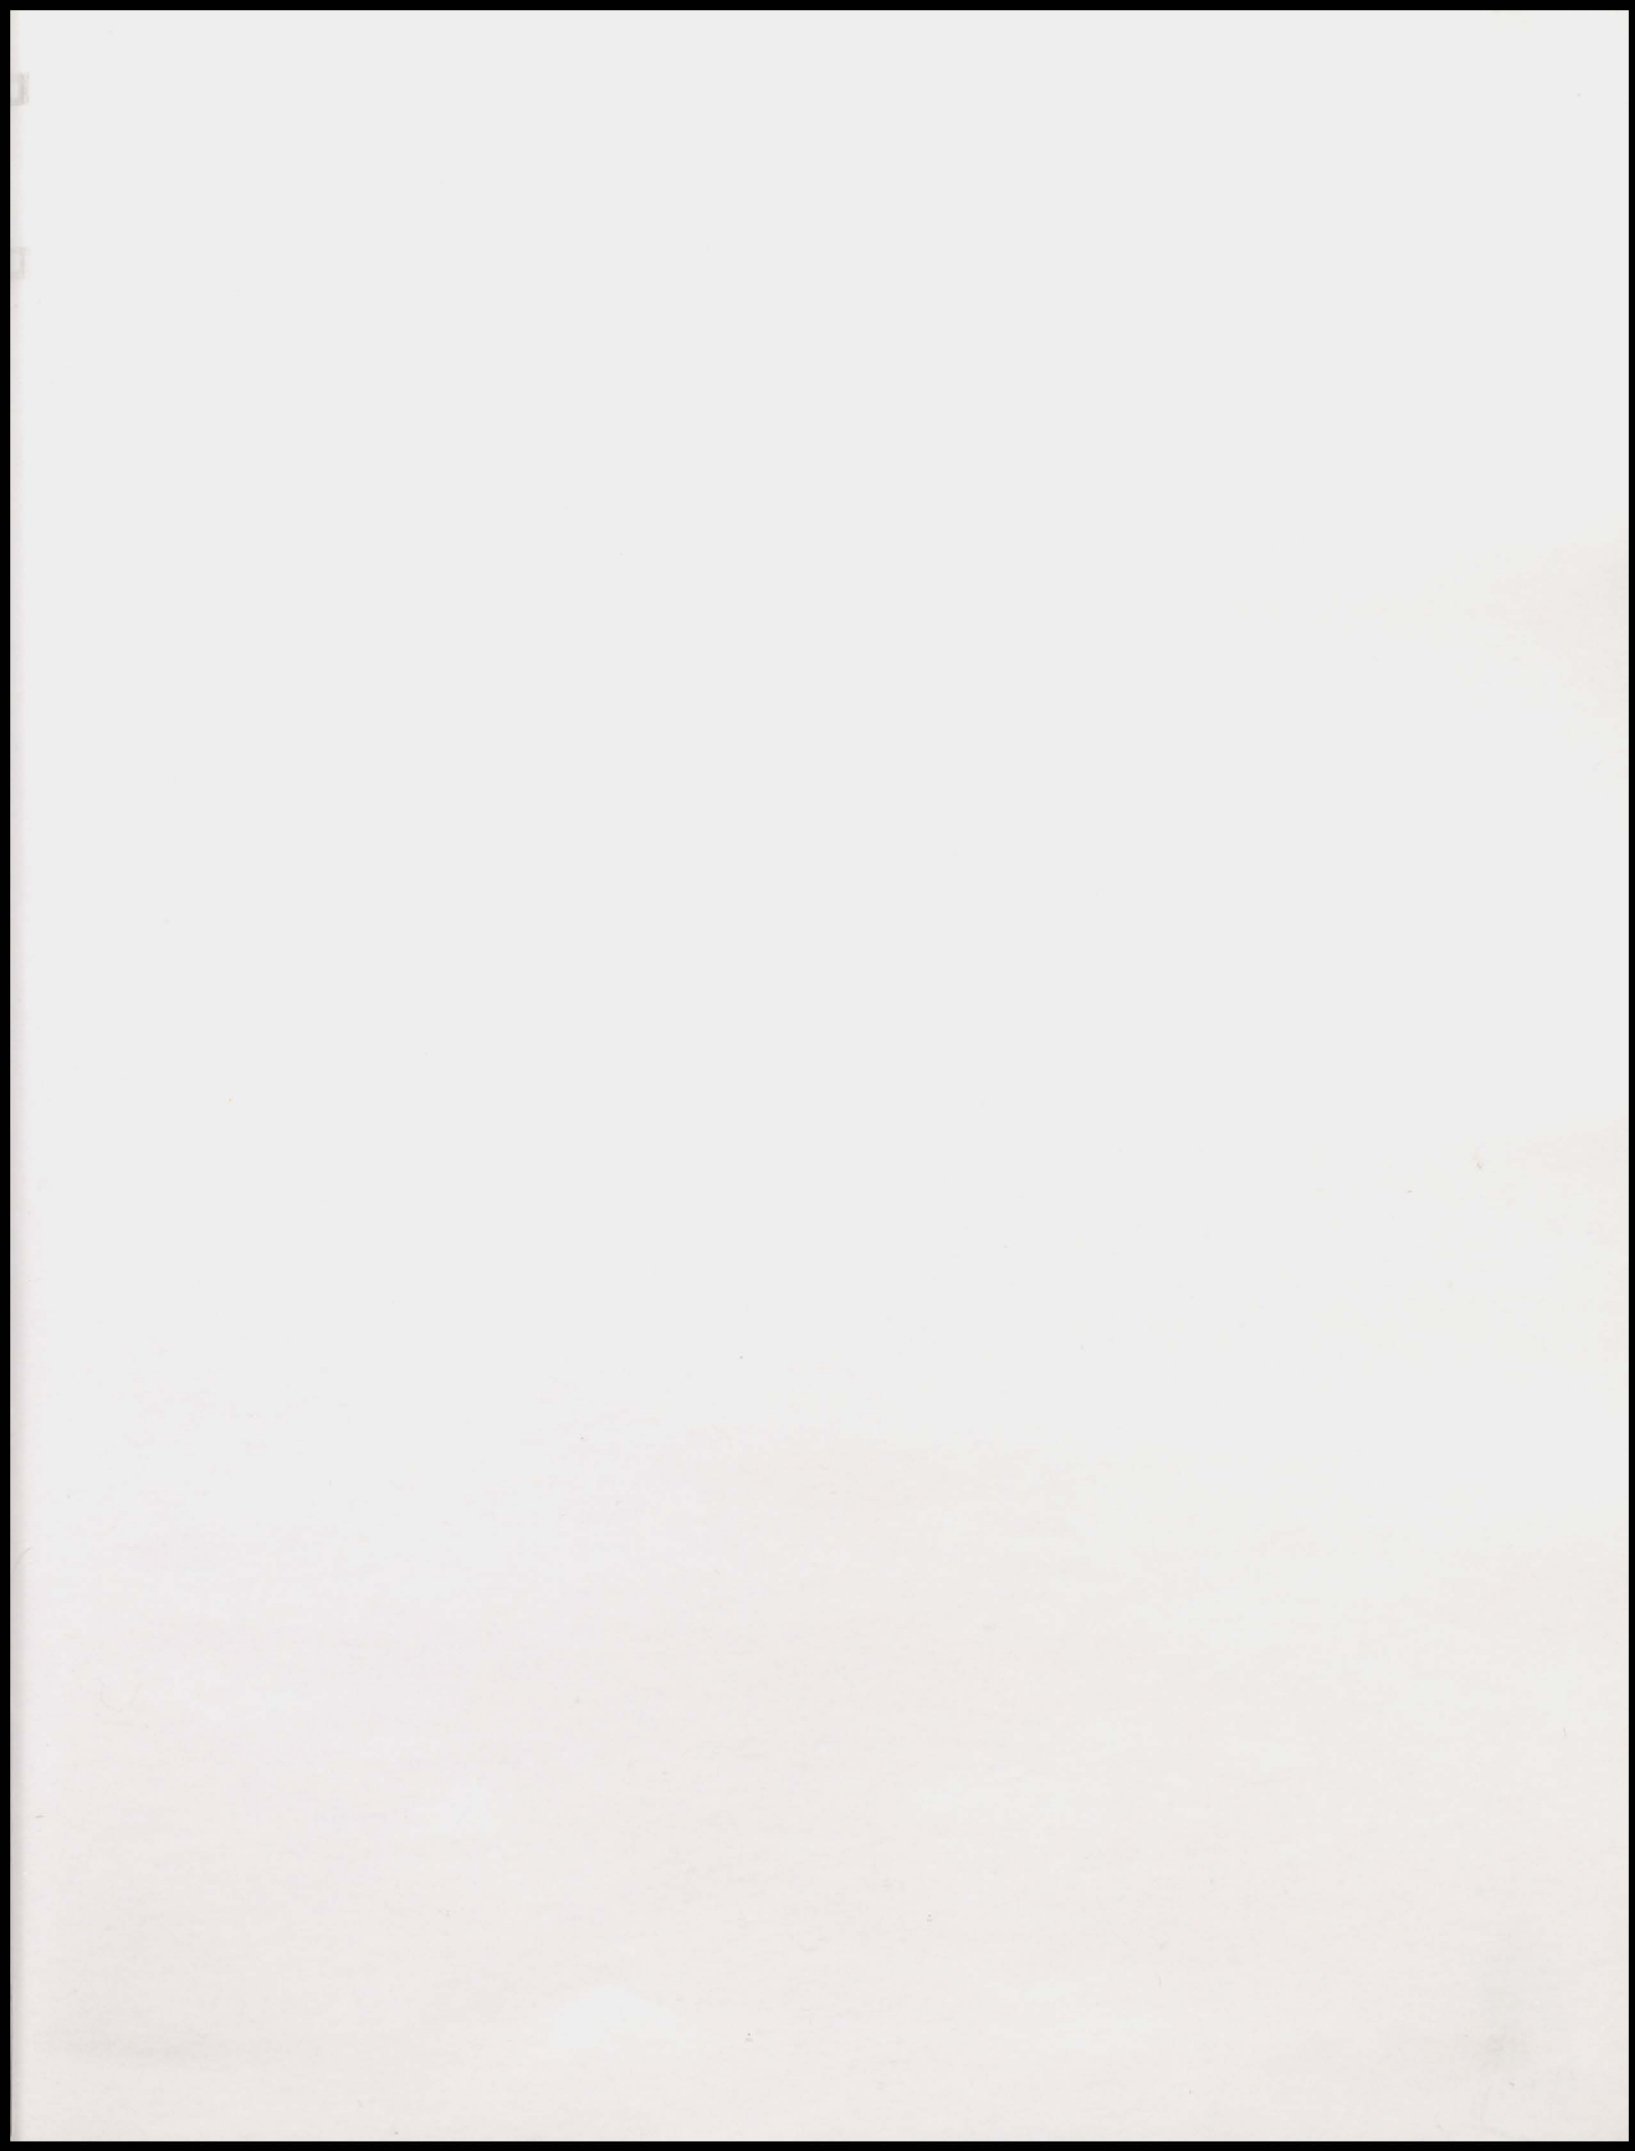

(Hey, at least you weren't the one covered in toilet paper!)
You made decisions. Like whom you'll send that holiday candy-gram to, or whether you should buy an Arizona or an Arnold Palmer.
(It seemed a lot more important at the time.)

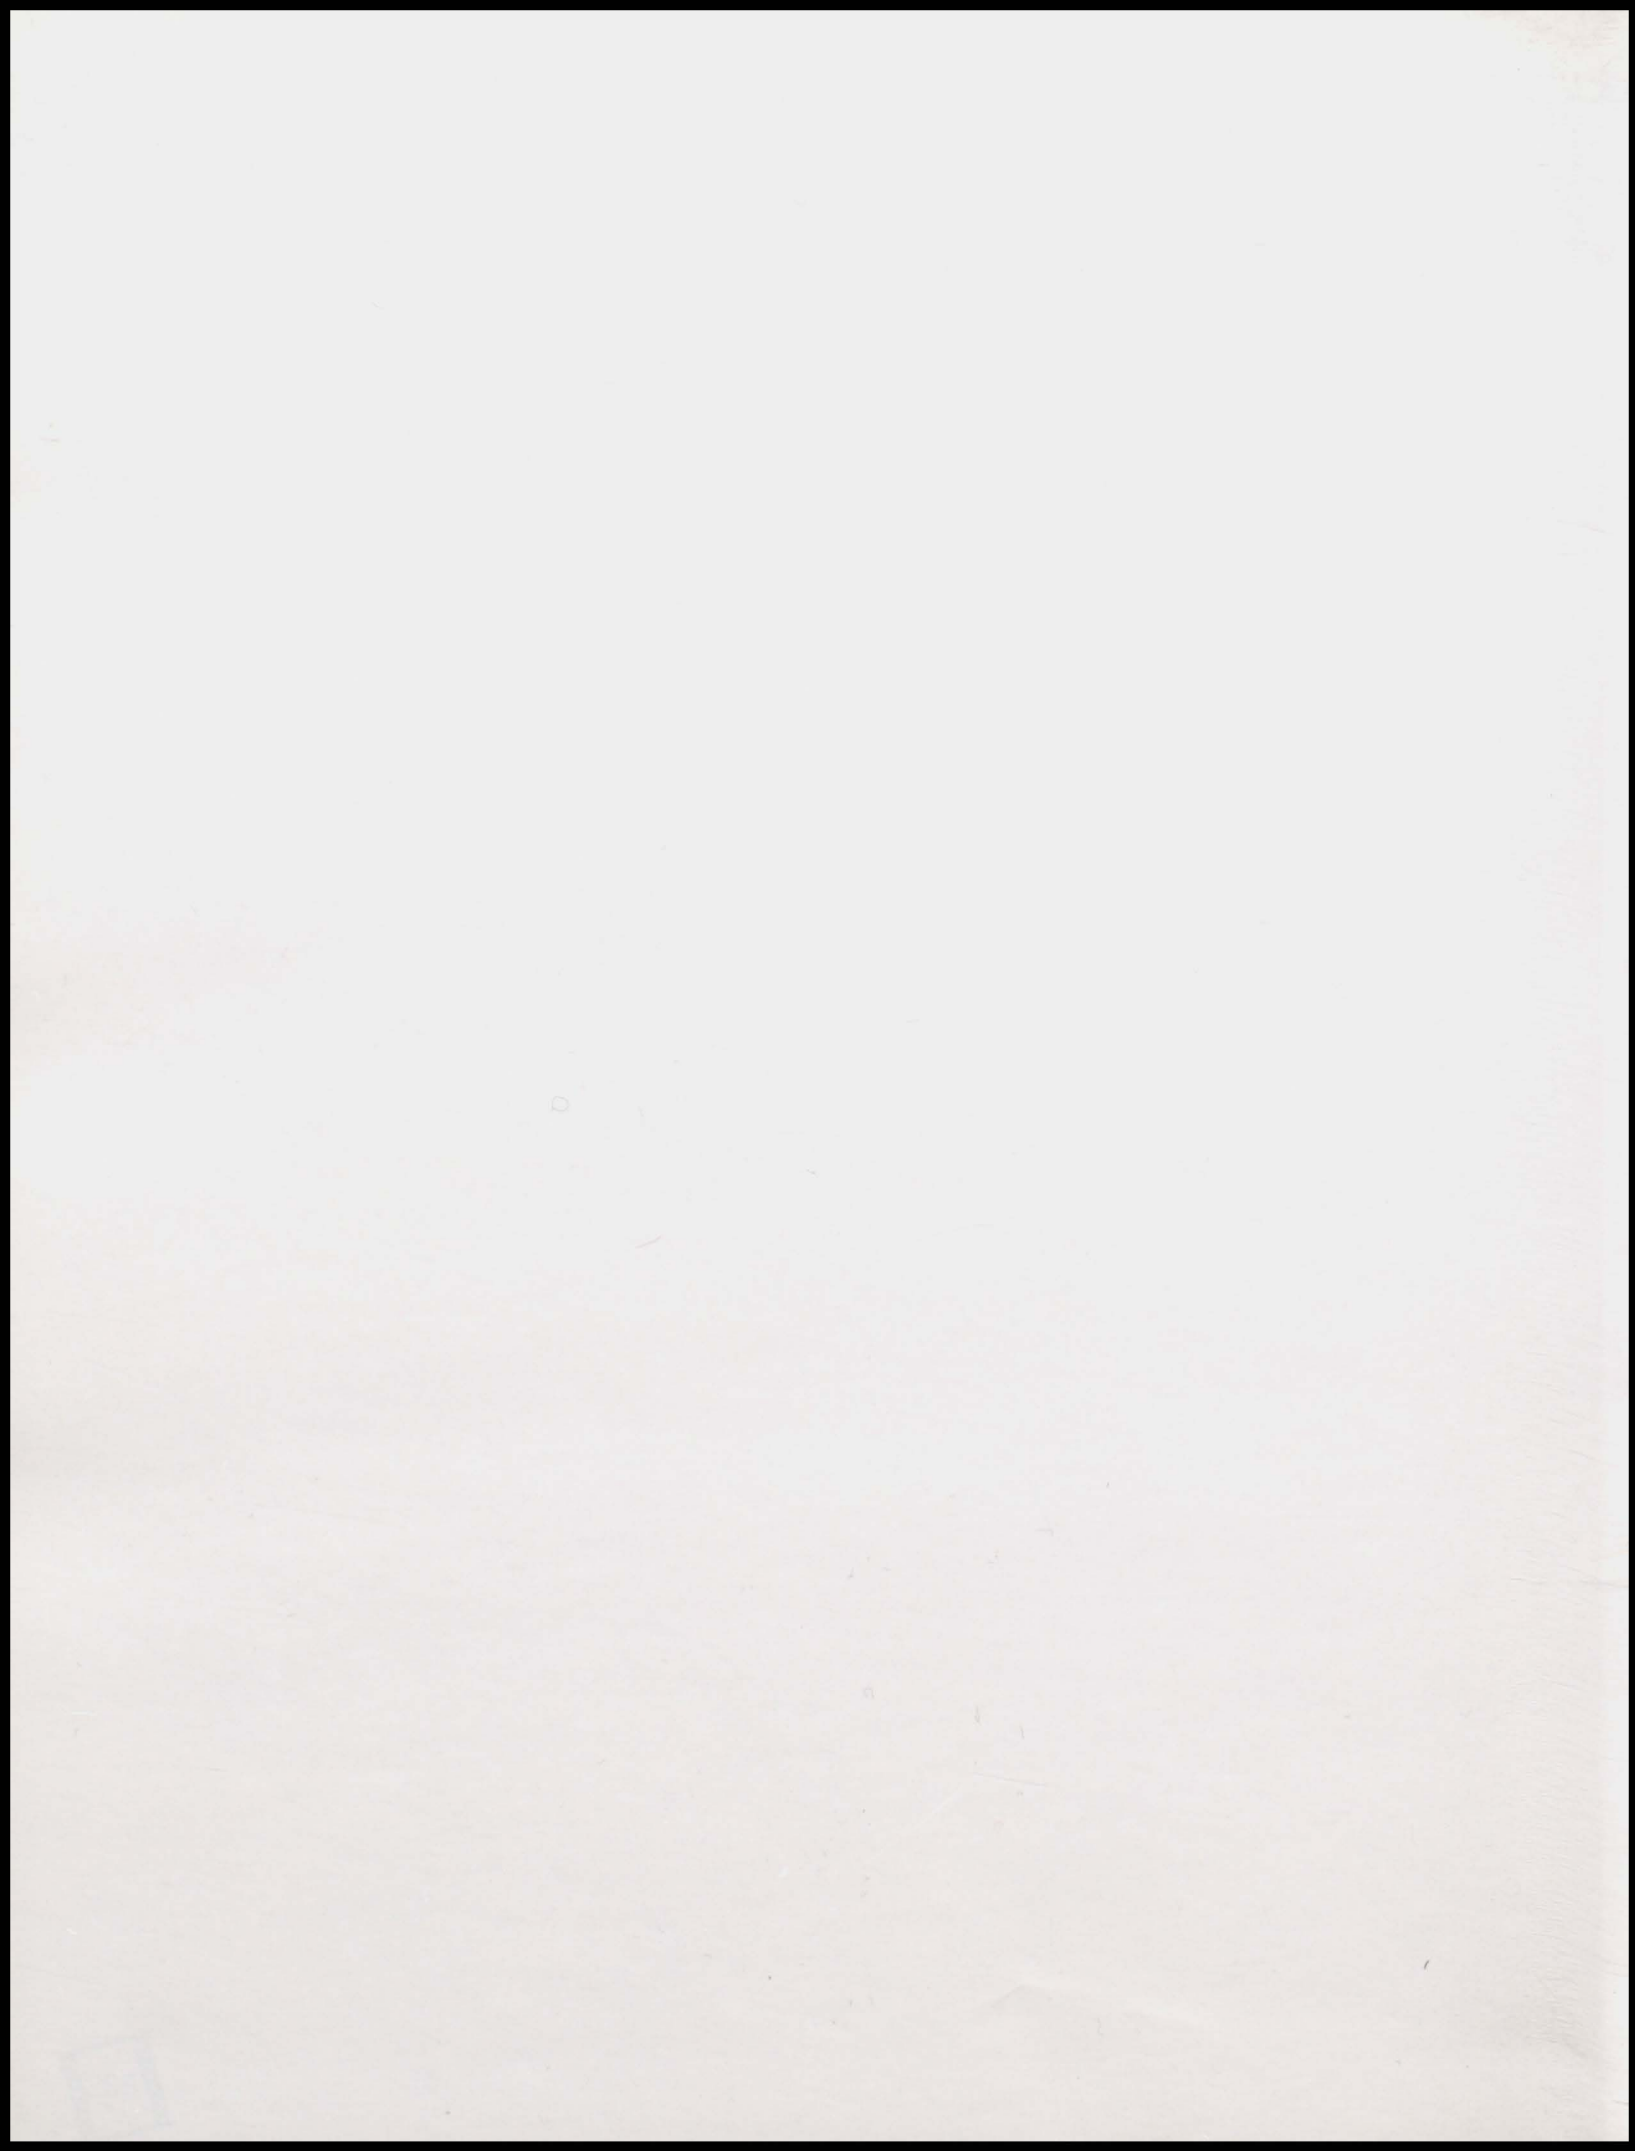

The problem with life is that there's no script to tell us how things are going to play out; there's no previews. Like a movie, in high school we all strive to make a better ending for ourselves. For those of us leaving Northern, it's a sad but exciting ending; if you can really call it that. For those still here, it's your turn to do what you can to make this movie of yours memorable.

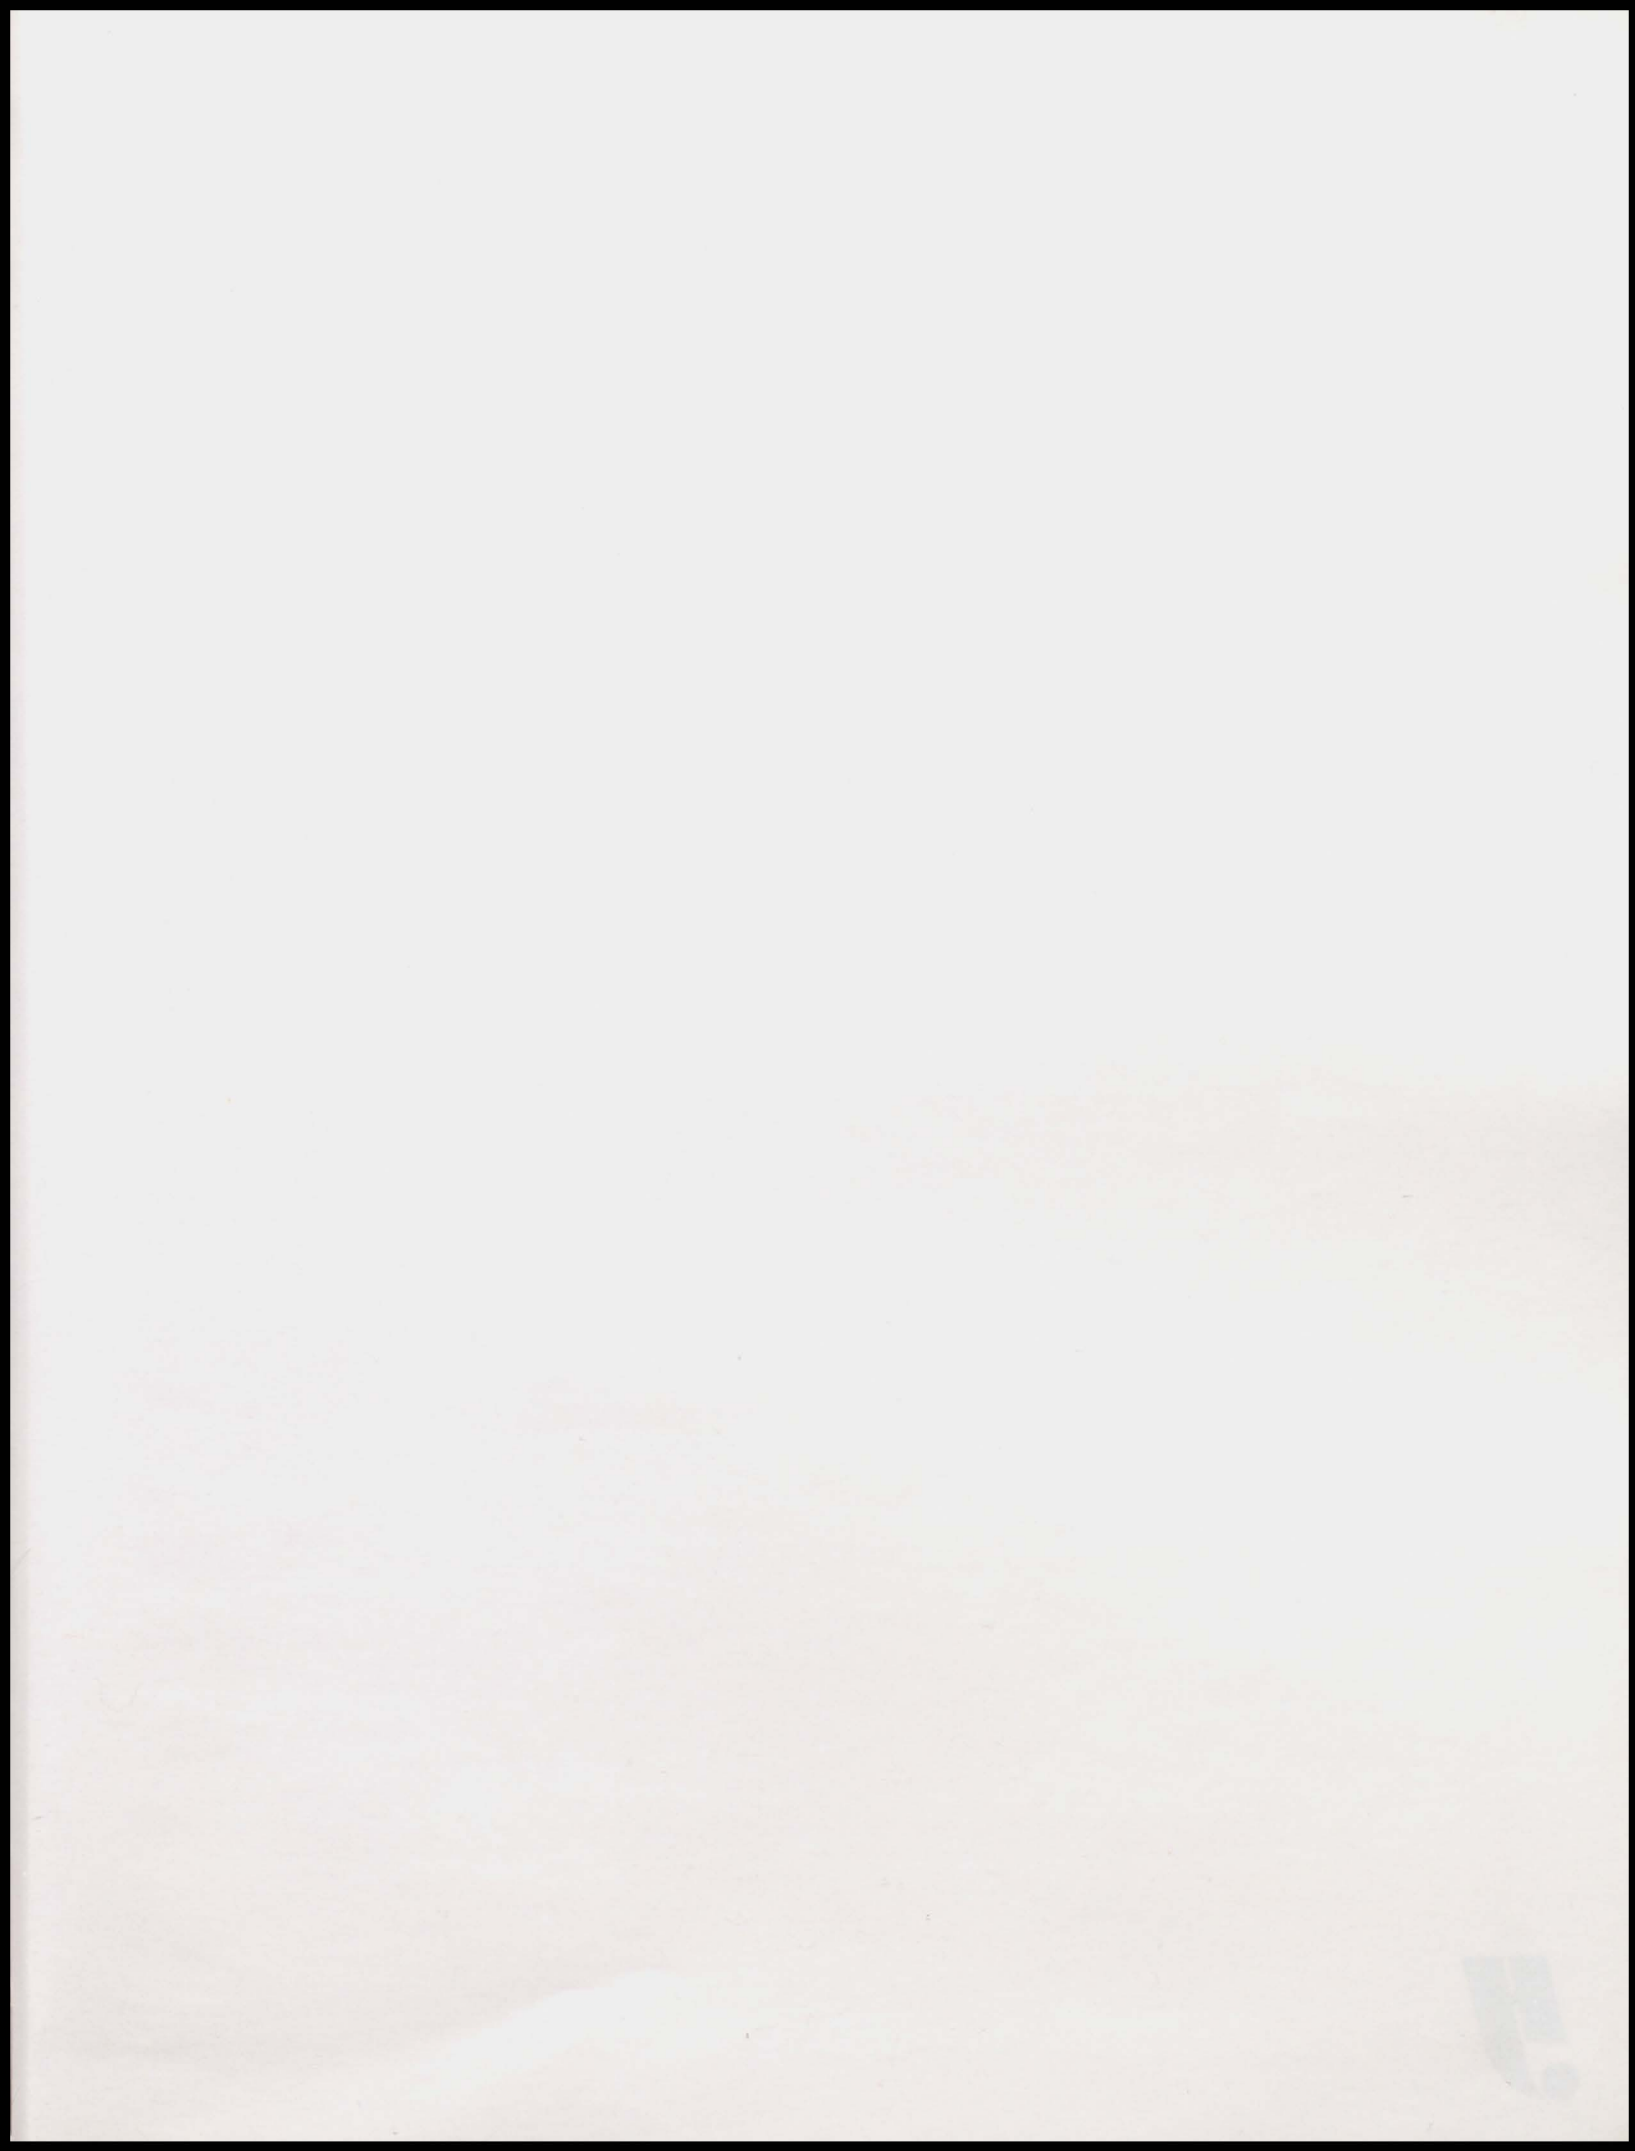

This year has been Oscar winning. Laughs, loves, losses, and lessons learned. It's coming to it's end though, and soon enough new characters will be walking through those doors ready to start their very own story. For the rest of us, as they say in the movie business, that's a rap!
